Memories,

Pressed between the pages of my mind.

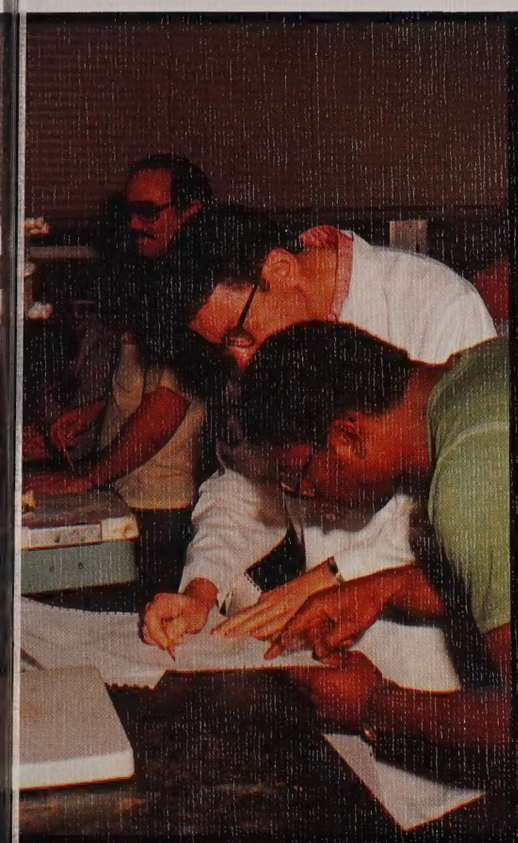

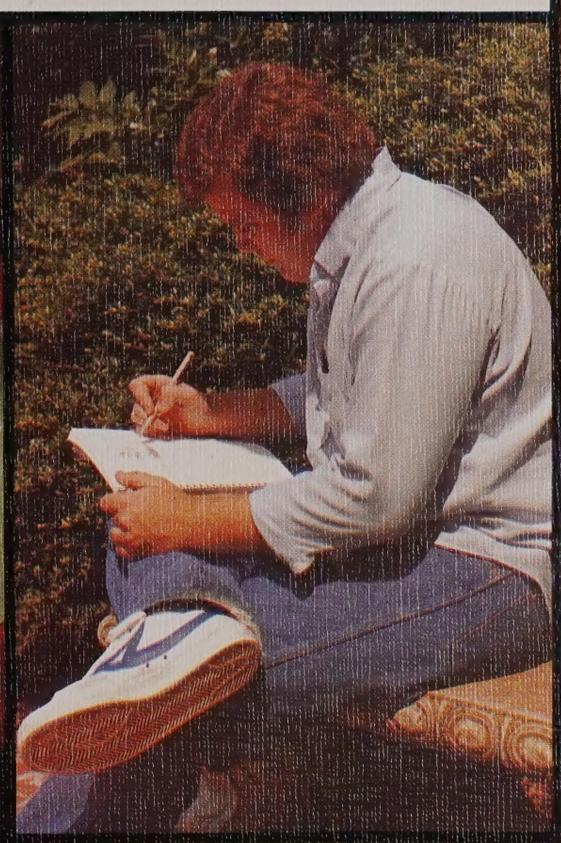

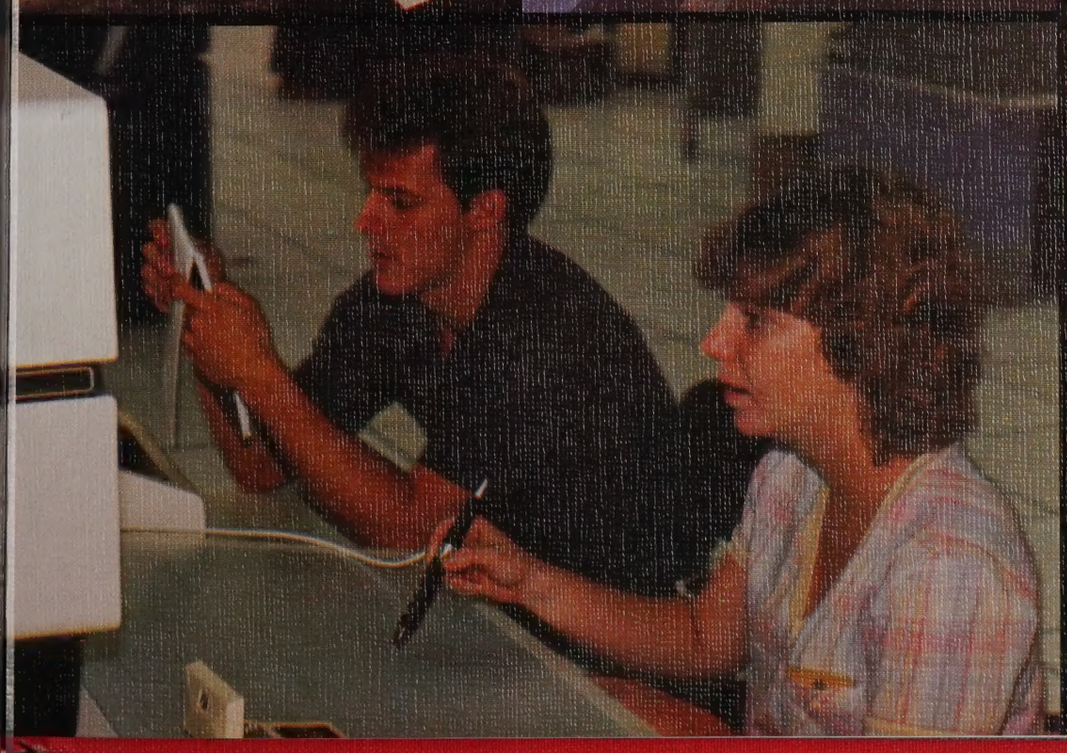

Memories,

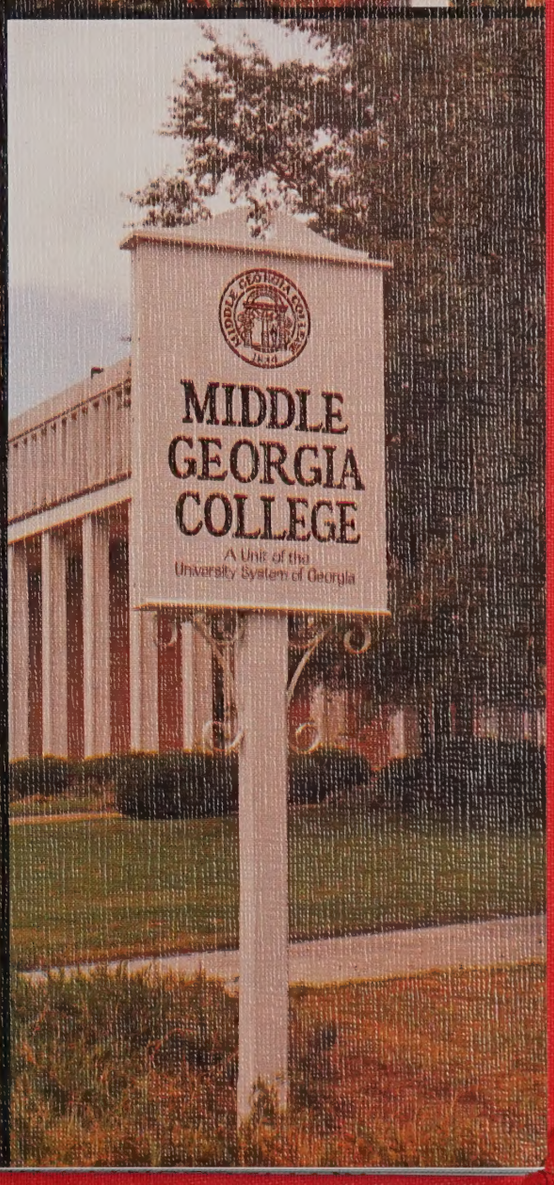

Sweetened through the ages just like wine.

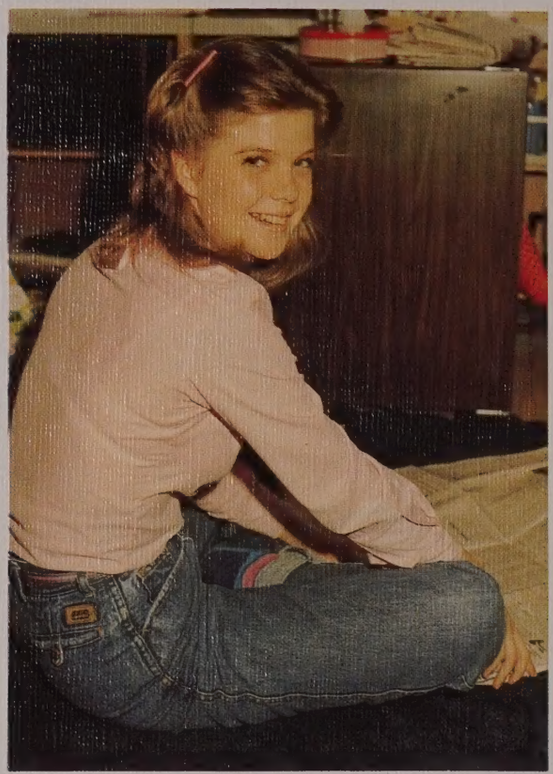

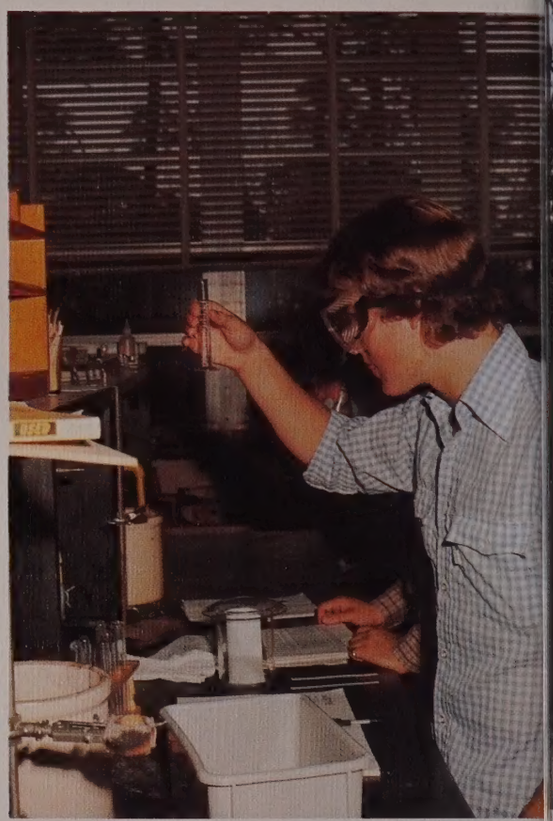

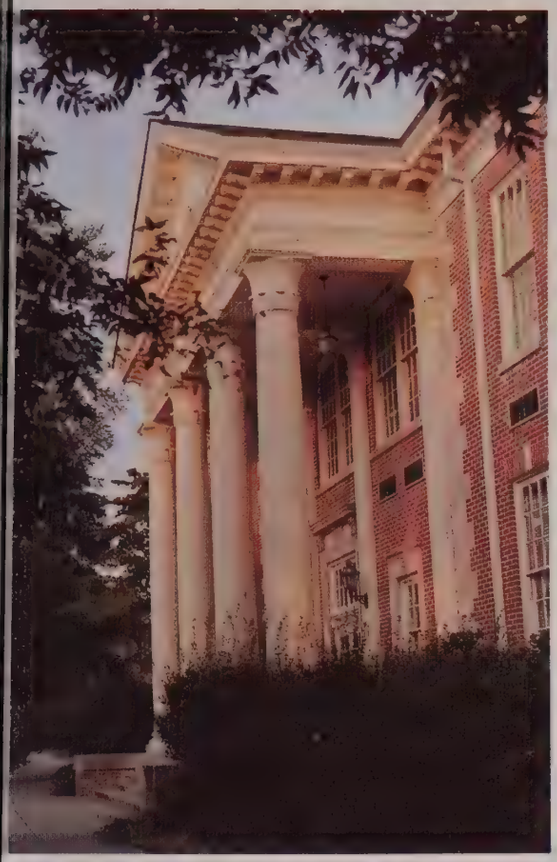

Quiet thoughts come floating down and settle softly to the ground like golden autumn leaves around my feet.

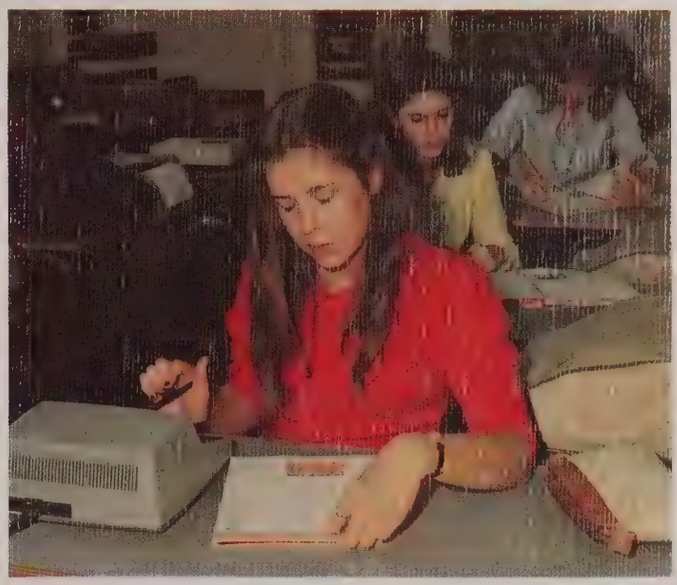

I touch them and they burst apart with sweet memories.

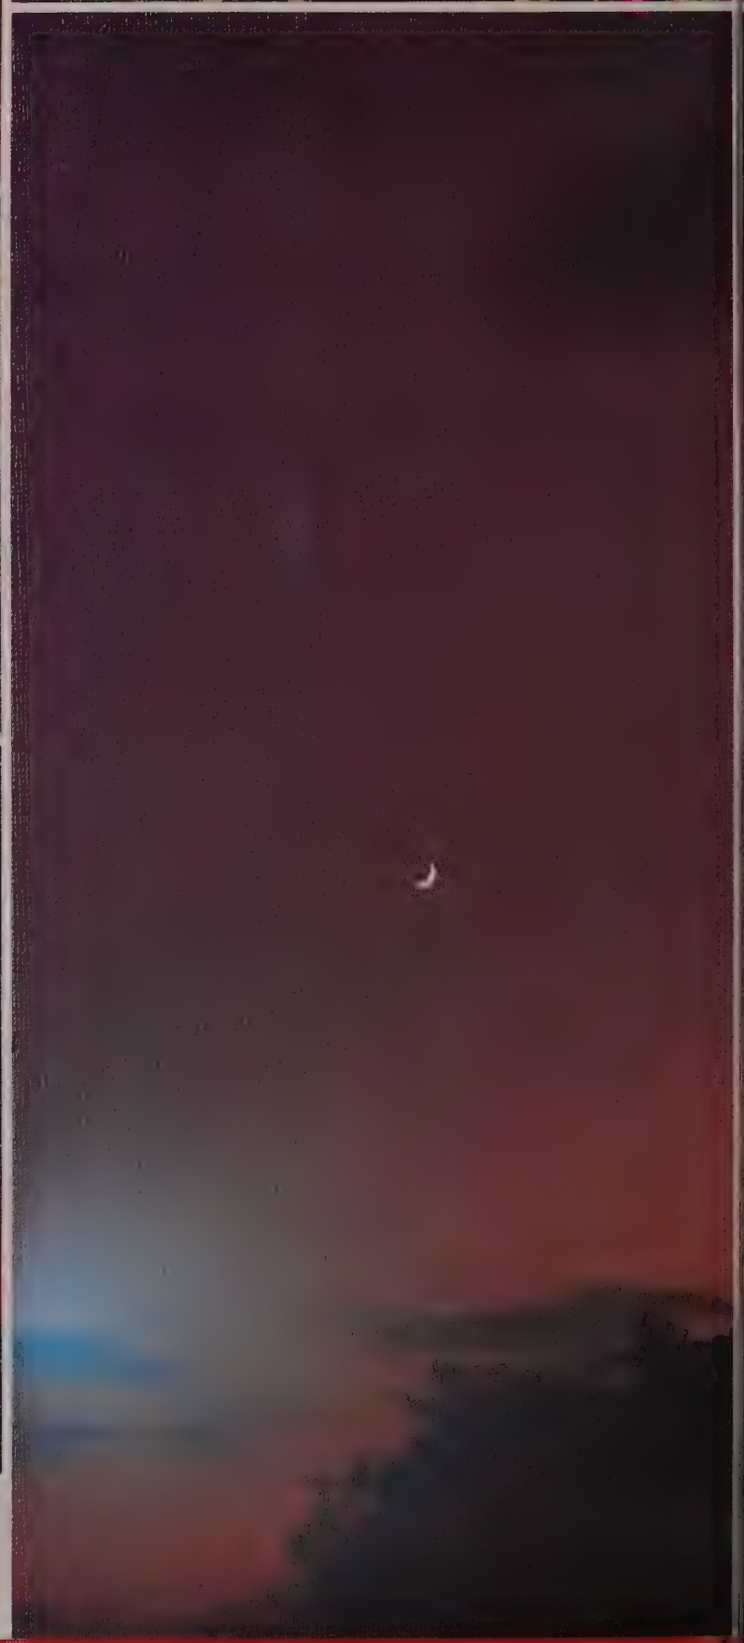

Sweet memories of lollipops and red bouquets and twilights trimmed in purple haze.

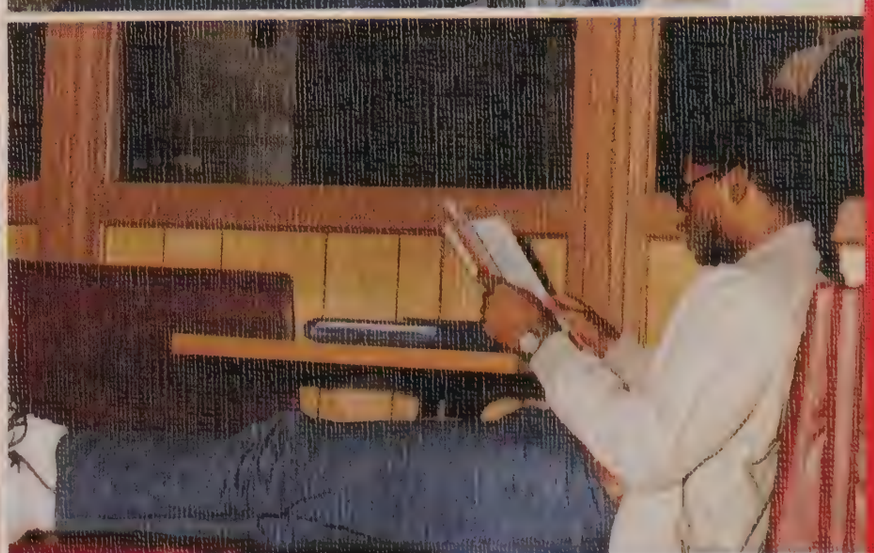

And laughing eyes and simple ways, quiet nights and gentle days with you.

Memories,
I cling to them and tremble to the dawn.

My memories are all that I have left now that you're gone.

Oh, what would I do without my sweet memories?

Memories,
Sadly fragrant flowers
turning brown.

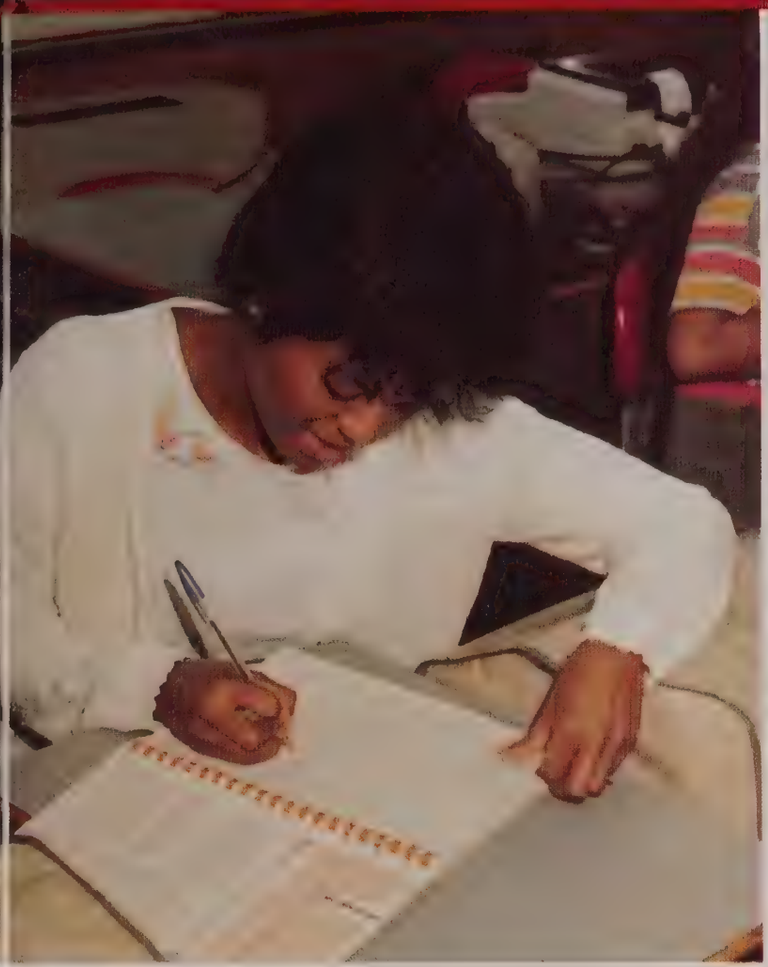

Memories,
Soft and distant
Showers coming down.
Coming down ... sweet memories ... memories ...
memories ... sweet memories.

*Memories

Memories, pressed between the pages of my mind.
Memories, sweetened through the ages just like wine.
Quiet thoughts come floating down and settle softly to the ground like golden autumn leaves around my feet.
I touch them and they burst apart with sweet memories.

Sweet memories, of lollipops and red bouquets and
twilights trimmed in purple haze and laughing
eyes and simple ways, quiet nights and gentle
days with you.

Memories, I cling to them and tremble to the dawn.
My memories are all that I have left now that you've gone.
Oh, what would I do without my sweet memories?

Sweet memories, of lollipops and red bouquets and
twilights trimmed in purple haze and laughing
eyes and simple ways, quiet nights and gentle
days with you.

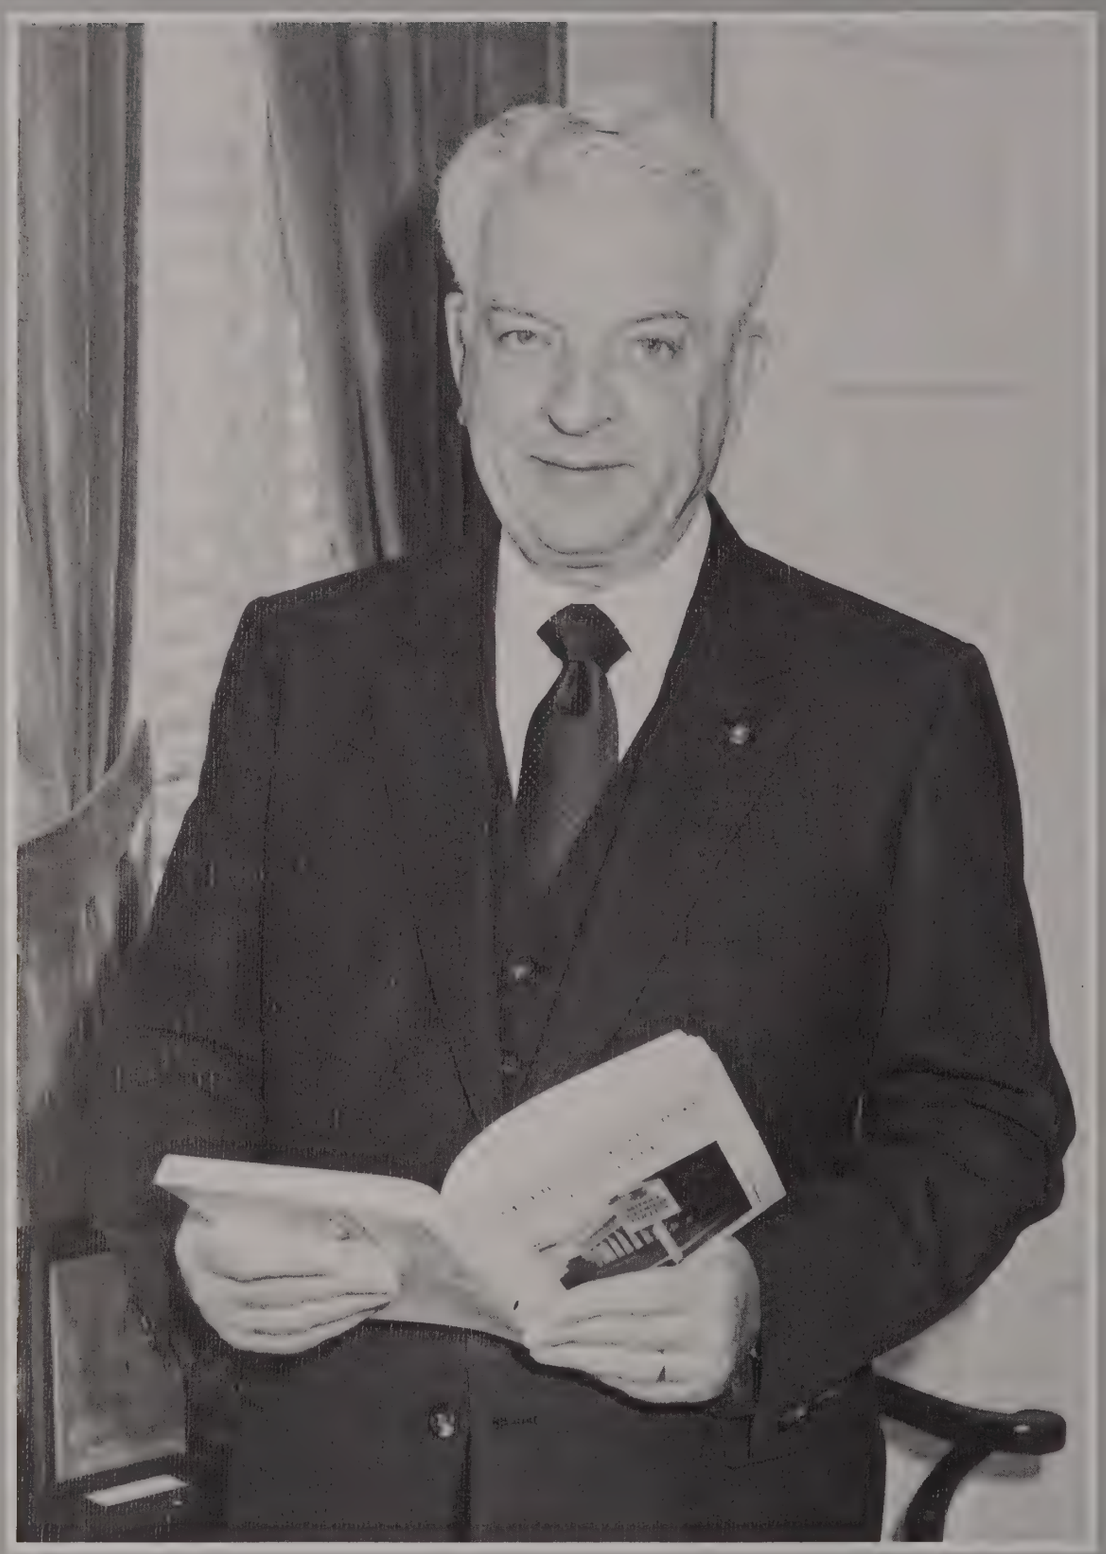

Memories, sadly fragrant flowers turning brown.
Memories, soft and distant showers coming down.
Coming down, sweet memories, memories, memories,
sweet memories.

Freshmen Orientation

Freshman orientation gives the new student a taste of what college life is all about. It gives new freshmen a chance to get acquainted with the college, its people, and its routine. Most students attend a summer orientation. Many, though, come in three days early for the fall session. The SGA mixer gives the students a chance to meet with faculty informally.

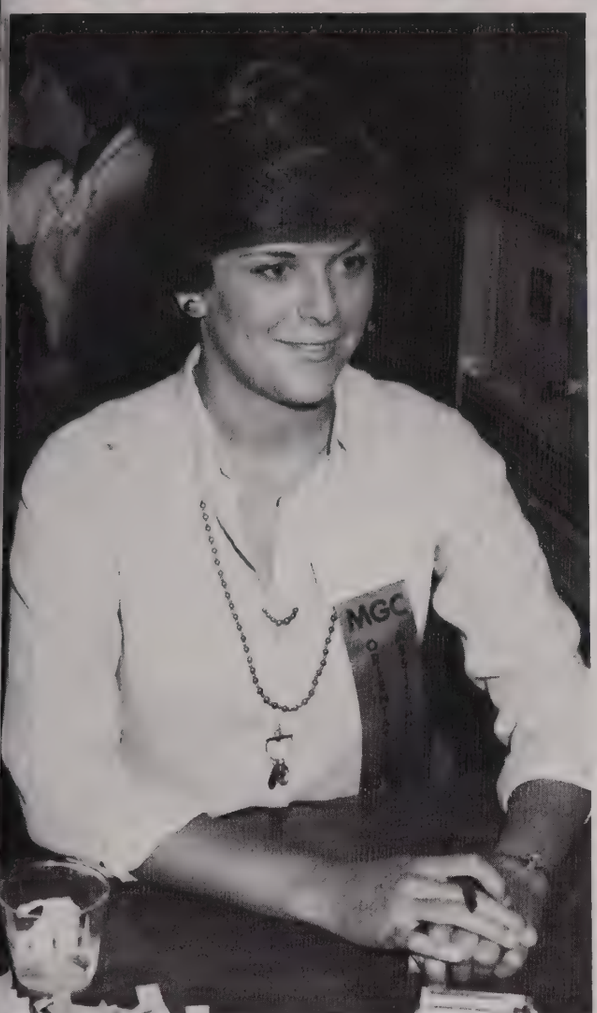

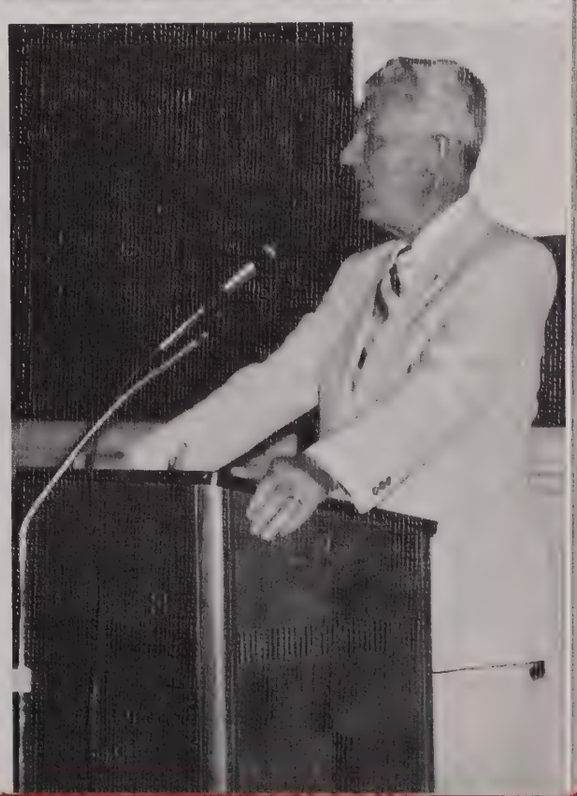

MGC

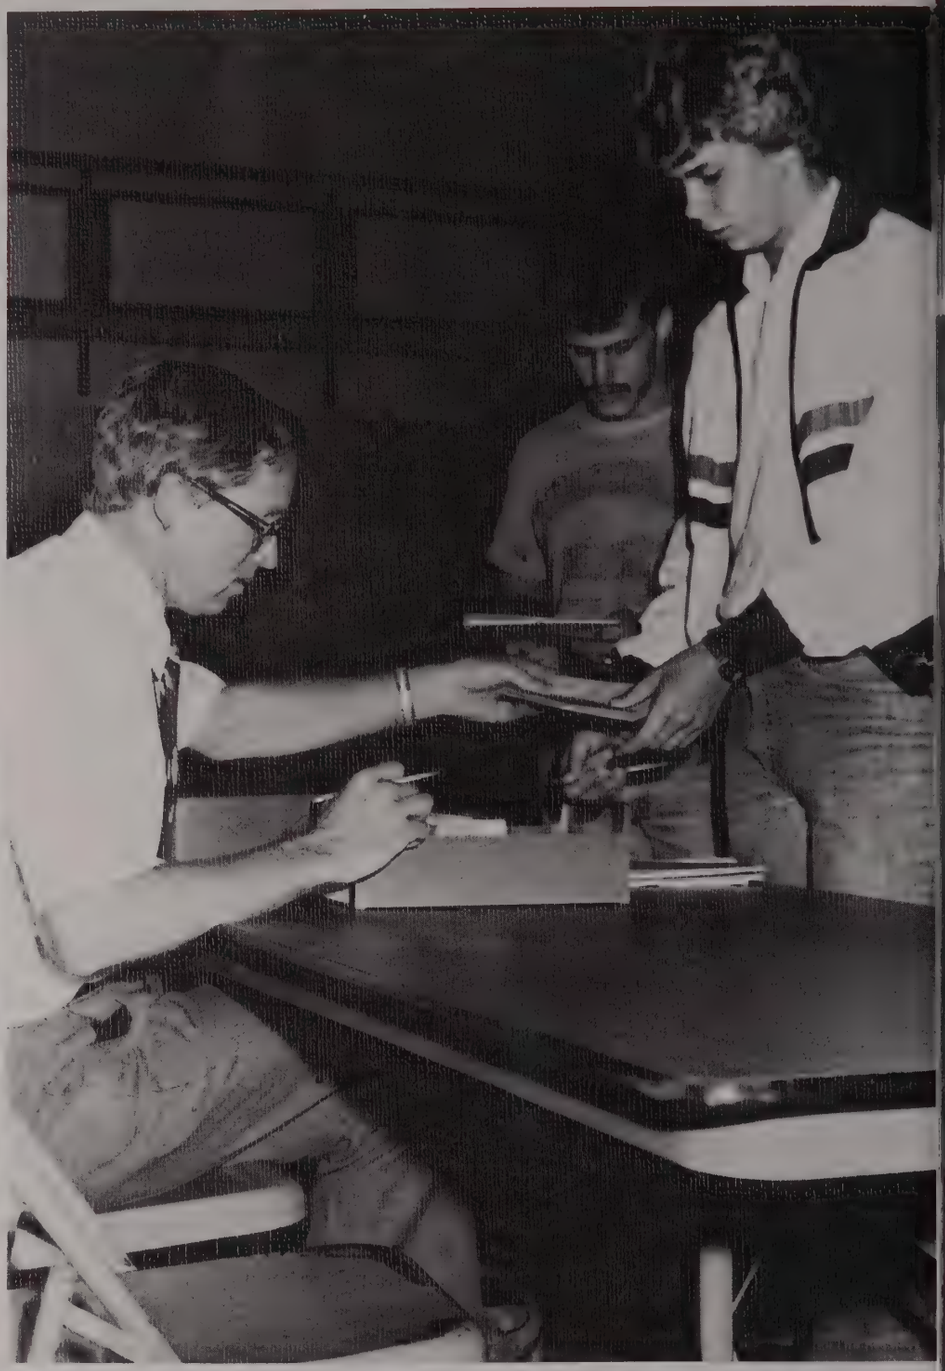

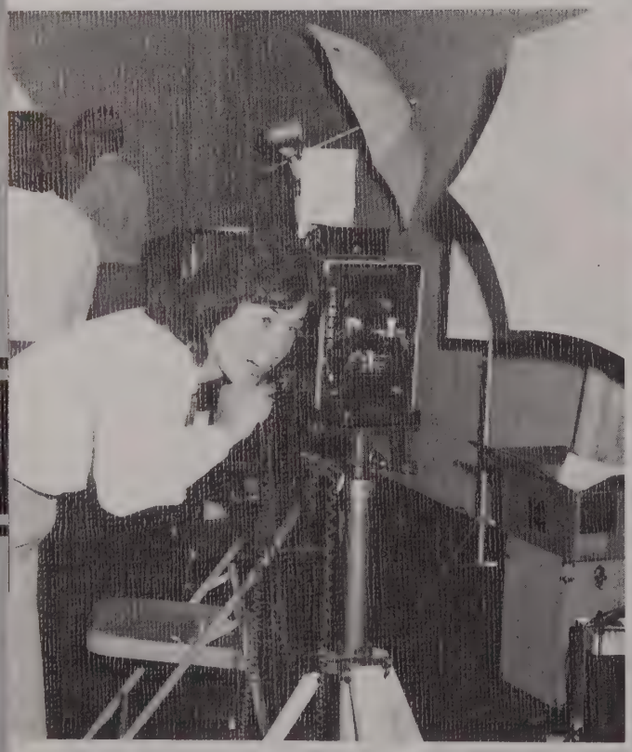

Registration

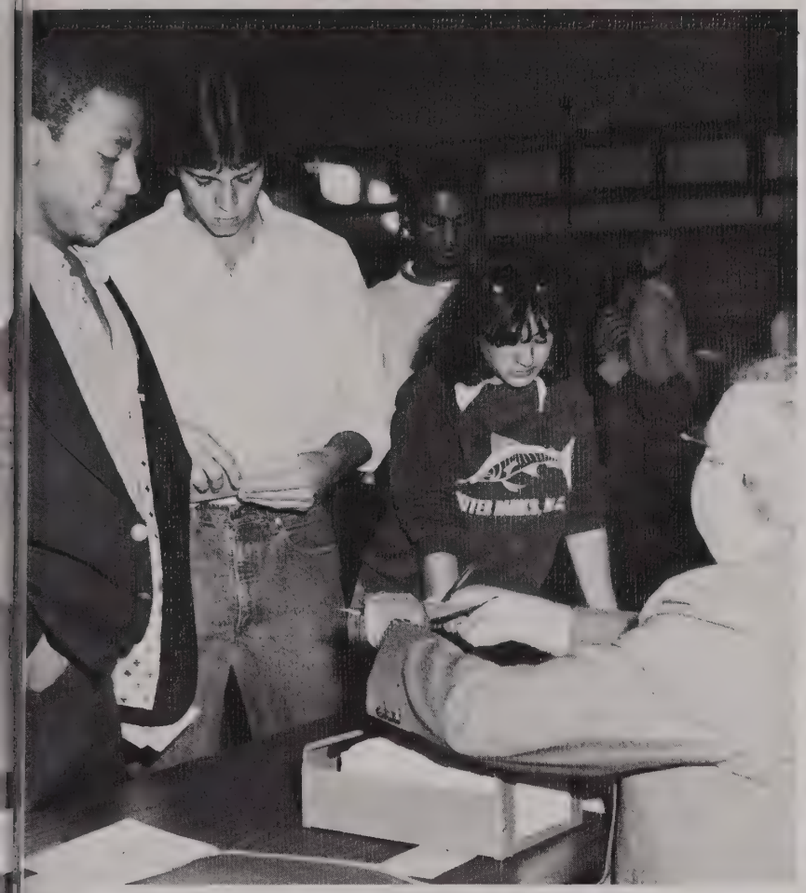

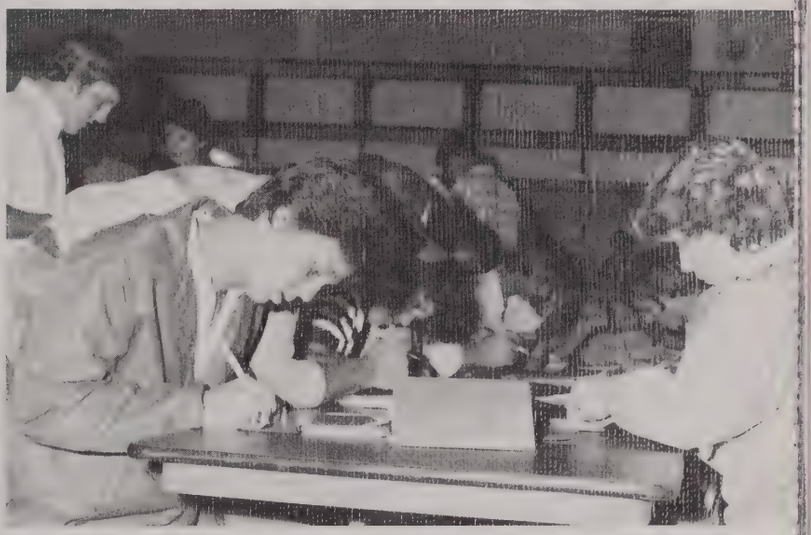

Registration. It's one of those facts of life that no one bothered to tell you about. For the beginning freshman, registration can be a trying experience. For the returning sophomore, it is a dreaded routine. Waiting in lines — pulling cards — paying fees — moving into the dorm — having an ID and yearbook photo made — are all a part of that unforgettable day.

New-Student/ Faculty Reception

Thursday night's new-student/faculty reception marks the end of the orientation/registration process and the beginning of the regular routine of college life. The President's reception gives the new and returning students a chance to meet MGC's faculty and staff and for the faculty and staff to meet the students.

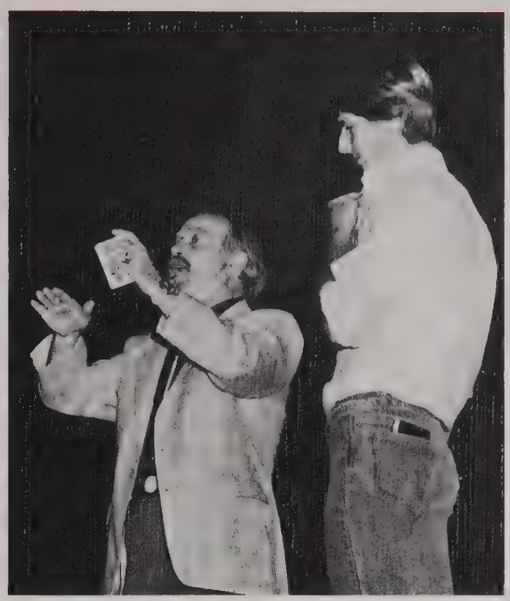

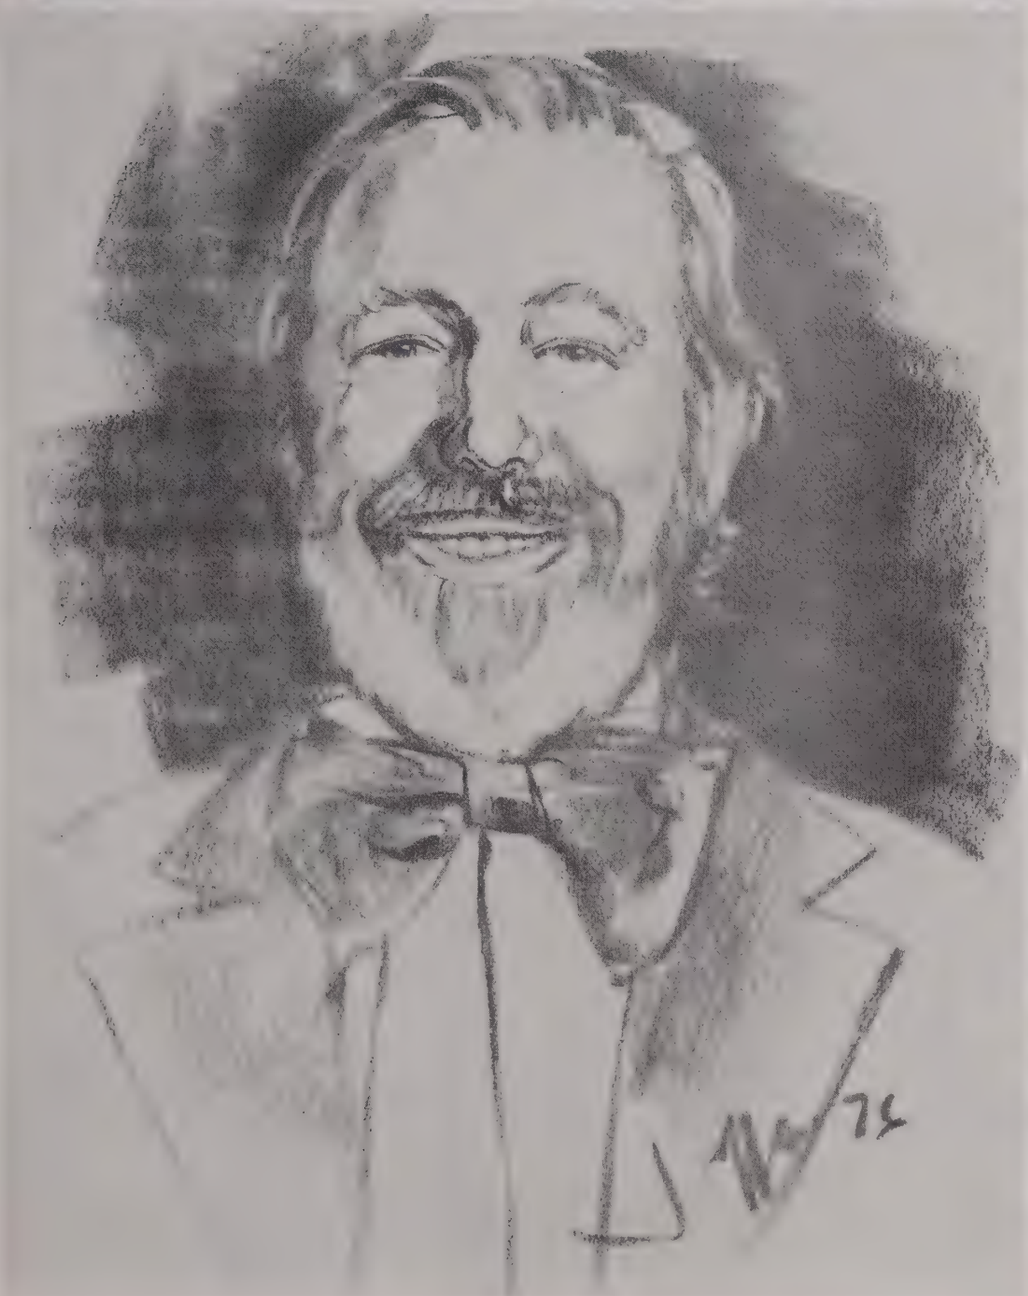

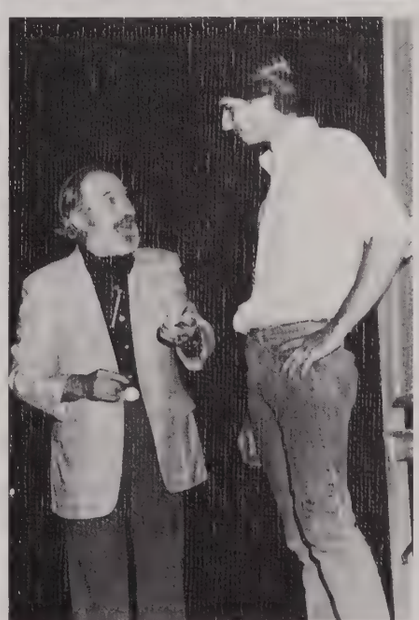

Mr. Fingers

Irv Weiner, better known as Mr. Fingers, left MGC students in a state of amazement with his many astonishing skills and unique acts of early vaudeville greats. Mr. Fingers, sponsored by SAC, performed card tricks and demonstrated his powers of mental telepathy for the student body.

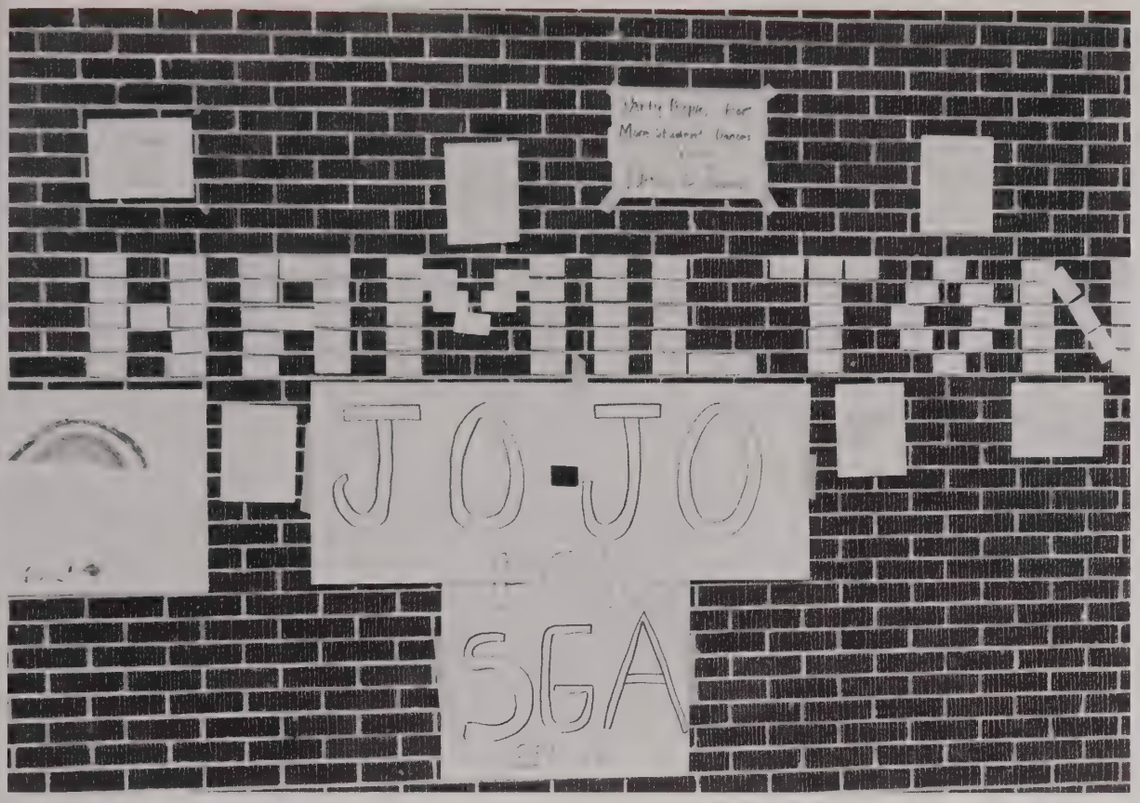

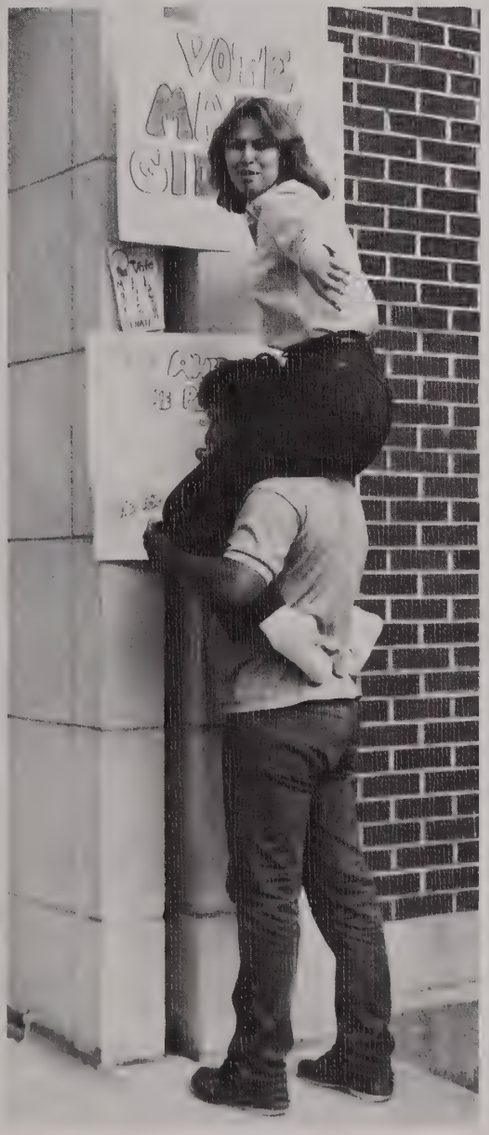

SGA Senatorial Elections

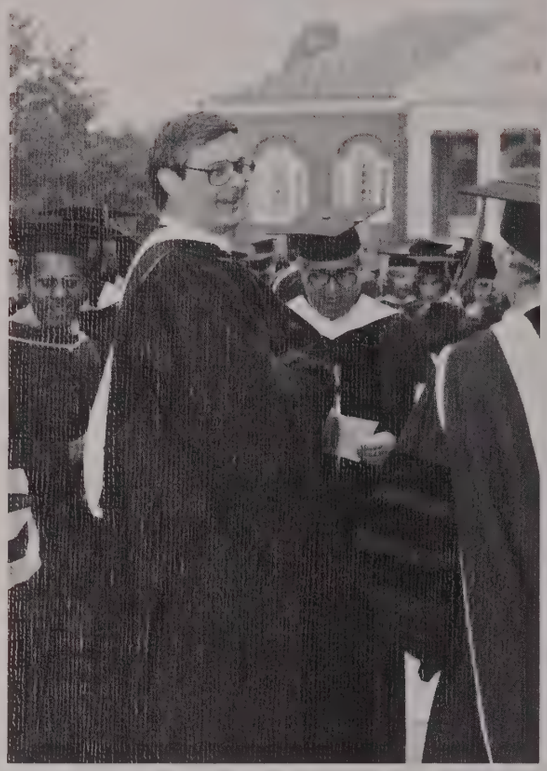

Election of Student Government Association senators is one of the first orders of business for fall quarter.

Election of officers was held in the spring. Elected to serve as officers were: Phyllis Rogers - President, Howard Whittaker - Vice President, Cyndi Goodwin - Secretary, and Mary Jane Clenney - Treasurer.

The fall quarter senatorial elections gave MGC 14 senators including John Barrett, Daniel Brady, Louann Brown, Mark Giddens, Robert Hamilton, Beth Hornsby, Mary Ellen Lawson, Jenna Pope, Carla Ray, Misty Rogers, Lisa Sanders, and Sheron Saxon. Gary Norwood and Joe Joe Wright served as senators fall quarter and were replaced by Jeff Segroves and Bob Smith after Christmas.

Fall Convocation

Middle Georgia College's fall convocation marks the official opening of the school each year. The 55th annual celebration, held on October 20, featured noted actress Celeste Holm. She charged the students to "enjoy life and get the most out of it."

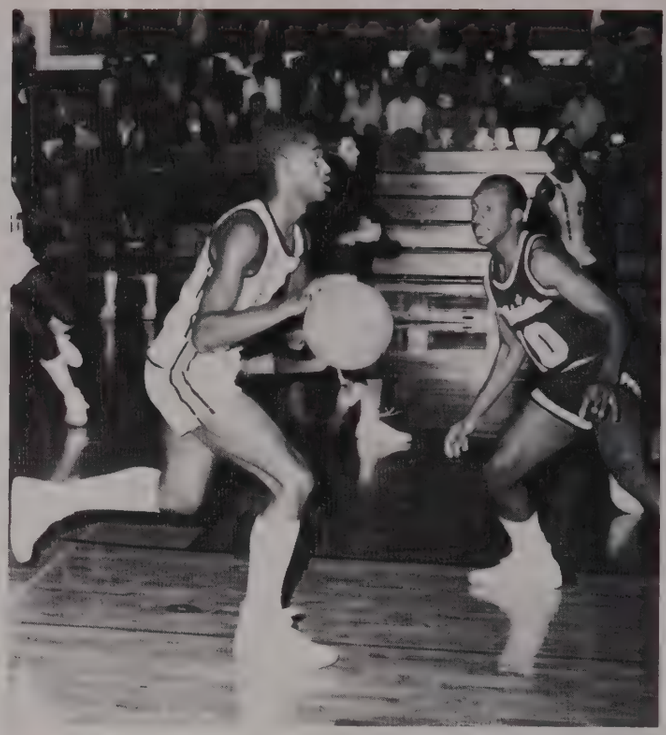

MGC Places Second In Tip-off Tourney

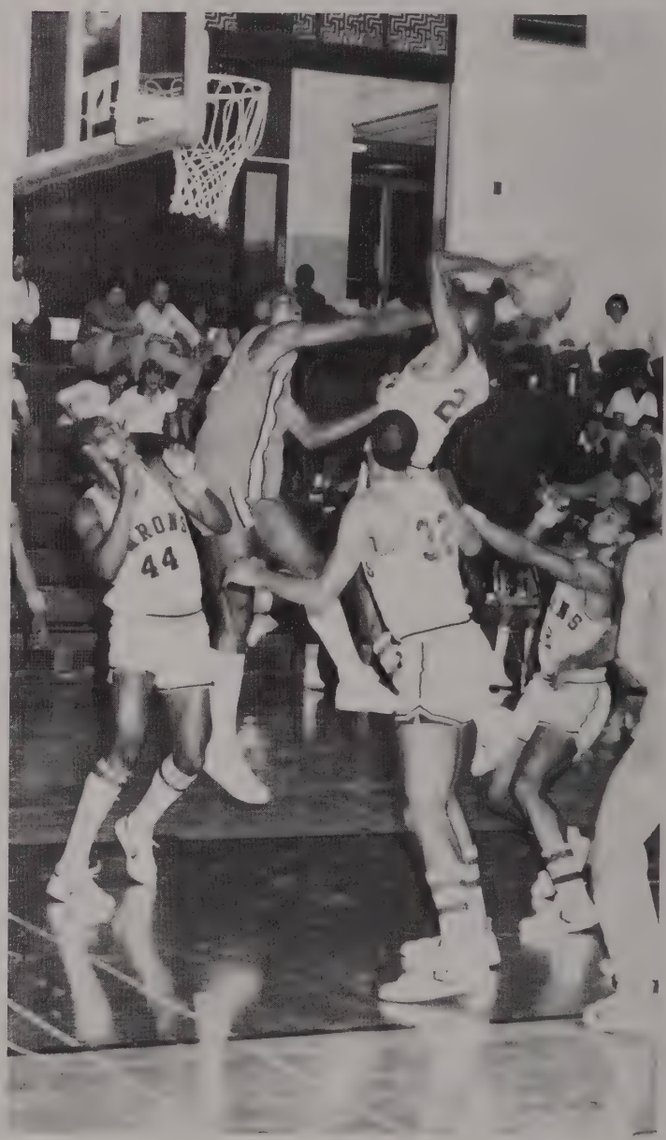

The Middle Georgia College Warriors placed second in the 15th annual MGC Tip-off Tournament held November 9 and 10. The Warriors hosted teams from Brewton-Parker, Georgia College and Columbia (South Carolina) Community College.

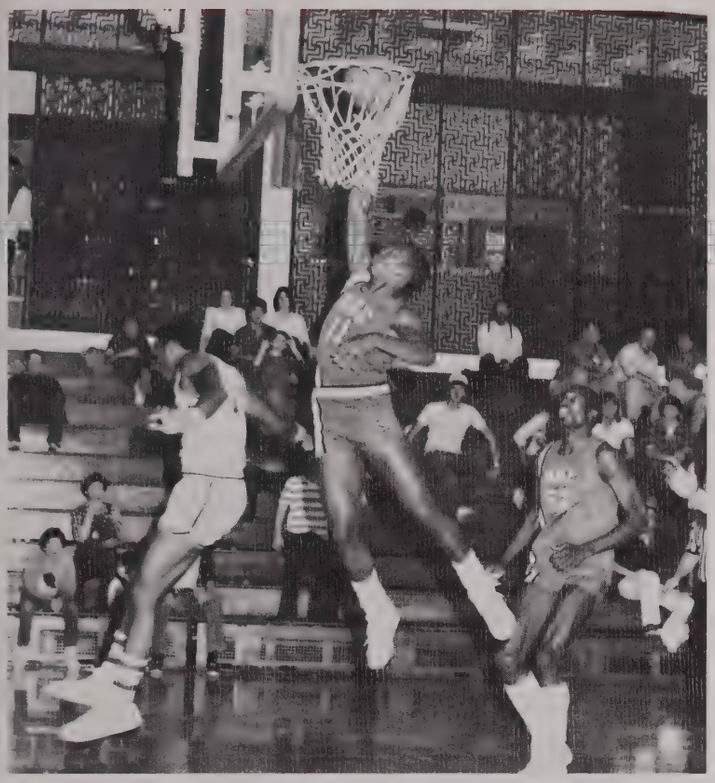

The championship game was a hard-fought battle between arch rivals MGC and Brewton-Parker. The Warriors dropped that game to the Barons in a contest Coach Ben Rogers called "... a classic MGC-BP ball game." The loss gave MGC the second-place trophy.

Bloodmobile Visits MGC

Middle Georgia College was the site of two Red Cross Bloodmobile visits during the 1982-83 year. Both visits were considered very successful for the program. The fall visit netted 125 pints for the program. The spring visit saw 93 pints donated.

Halloween Club Carnival

The annual Halloween Club Carnival at MGC has become as much a part of fall quarter as Homecoming and the changing of the leaves of the season.

The carnival gives campus organizations a chance to recruit new members in a different atmosphere.

The annual costume party and dance followed, sponsored by SAC.

Someone Waiting

The mystery, Someone Waiting, was the MGC Players' fall production. The suspenseful "who-dun-it" murder mystery told the lengths a father would go to revenge his son's death. The superb performances of John Barrett, Chris Coggins, Jason Ledbetter, and Clark Senn made the mystery a successful suspense thriller of a production.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming

And what would fall quarter be without Homecoming? The parade. The cold weather. The Homecoming Court and Queen. The Homecoming game. The Homecoming dance. All went toward making Homecoming 1982 a success.

Homecoming Dance

Misty Rogers - 198[illegible] Homecoming Queen, Edie[illegible]dwards - 1982 Homecoming Queen, and Lori Disser - Maid of Honor.

Homecoming Court

The 1982-83 Warrior basketball season marked one of the worst seasons in Coach Ben Roger's record book.

The Warriors finished the regular season 13-15 on the year and 7-13 in the conference. That mark was Rogers' second losing season at Middle Georgia College.

Rogers called the season "disappointing." He attributed most of the season's problems to inexperience and the youth of his squad. Only three of his 1982-83 squad members wore Warrior red in the previous season.

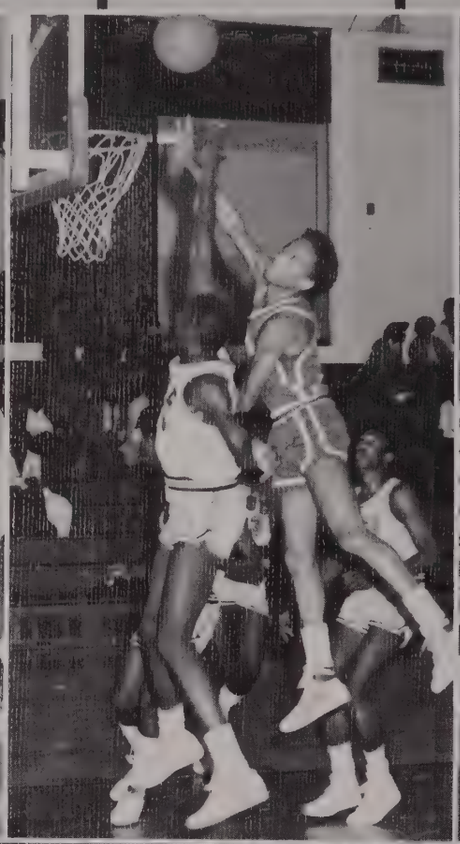

The Warriors were in the cellar position of the GJCAA league for the entire season. But for the entire season, they were nipping at the heels of the leaders. As tournament time rolled around, the Warrior backed into the state playoffs ranked number eight. They drew in the opening round the number-one ranked team in the state — Gainesville. Their first opponent in the tournament became their last opponent for the year.

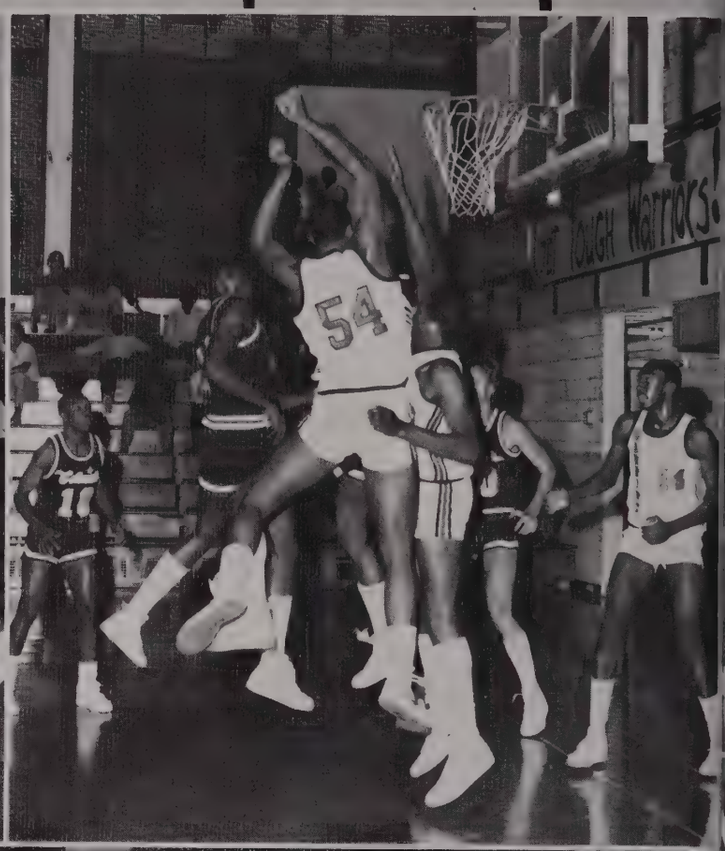

According to Rogers, the team played its all the entire season. Several of the losses were within just a matter of two or three points. But in the record books, 1982-83 went down as the first losing season in the past 10 years for Rogers and only his second at Middle Georgia College.

The Warriors baseball team had an outstanding regular season with a 9-3 conference record and 30-7 overall. The Warriors had many fine players who proved themselves by making the All Region team, including Jeff Oyster, Alex Diaz, Joe Datin, Jim Leyritz, and Mike Fitzgerald. MGC advanced to the Region 17 tournament and took the title in three straight games. Players making the Region 17 All-tournament team were: David Poulos, Oyster, Diaz, and Leyritz. Leyritz was also tournament MVP. In the SE District tournament, Chipola of Florida proved to be a tough opponent, but the Warriors were up to the task and won the right to go to the nationals for the fourth time in five years. SE All-tournament members included: Diaz, Fitzgerald, Ray Stephens, Poulos, and Gene Morgan. Oyster received the Outstanding Pitcher award, and Manny Mantrana took tournament MVP.

The Lady Warriors had an outstanding year, drawing a third place ranking in the state finals at Oxford. During the regular campaign, they compiled a 10-3 record. Both Sandi Brinson and Julie Sewell ended the season with only one loss each. At the state tournament, the team performed well. All doubles teams advanced to the semi-finals, and Sewell went all the way to the finals before finishing.

MEN'S TENNIS

Middle Georgia's men's tennis team finished the season with an even 3-3 mark with two matches washed out by rain. On the season, the Warriors defeated Andrew College once and Gordon Junior twice. Losses were suffered at the hands of ABAC, Brunswick, and Georgia Southwestern College. The team, which was the first men's team at MGC in several years, did not compete in the state tournament.

WINTER

SNOW!

In the middle of the sun belt, snow is something that you talk about, wish for at Christmas, and never expect two years in a row!

Snow is a rarity in the area of Middle Georgia.

But snow made an unexpected appearance on the MGC campus on Thursday, January 20. Nothing else would do except to call off classes and enjoy!

The January snow gave MGC students a two-day holiday. It made driving almost impossible. And, yes, it made the ground look like a winter wonderland. The biggest problem, though, was with the ice that accompanied the snow and slush.

But that was not the only snow of 1983. Spring break — a time for basking in the sun? — brought with it the largest snow storm that late in the season. Middle Georgia escaped the brunt of that storm, but points north enjoyed a late-March snow cover.

Founder's Day

As part of Georgia's Semiquincentenary celebration, MGC hosted a rare winter convocation remembering MGC's founders.

Speaker for the day was former Iranian hostage Colonel Charles W. Scott.

In what turned out to be one of the very best convocation ceremonies in recent years, Col. [illegible] said that [illegible] in captivity contributed to the renaissance of [illegible]

Kernel Takes 12 Georgia College Press Awards For 1982

The Kernel's 1982 year was a banner year for the publication. In statewide judging, the paper took a total of 12 Georgia College Press Association (GCPA) awards for the year.

In overall paper competition, the publication took top honors in general advertising excellence and in sports coverage. It took second-place honors in features, layout and design, and general excellence. In news, the Kernel took a third place.

Individually, Kernel staff members took five honors. Timothy Hurd took first places in sports and in objective reporting. Edie Edwards and Donna McGlohon took second- and third-place honors in interpretative reporting. Harvey Gilbert took a third place in editorial photo.

Editor Maryanne Zimmerman was elected GCPA vice president for 1983. And Advisor Ken Joyner received an honorary Life Membership in GCPA.

George K. Hinton and Ken Joyner were Kernel Advisors.

The Middle Georgia Players Present

Annie Get Your Gun

Annie Get Your Gun was the Middle Georgia College winter musical presentation. The story involves a diamond-in-the-rough county girl played by Cyndi Goodwin. Annie wins her way into Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show by proving she is a better shot than the Macho star marksman of the troup, Frank Butler, played by Robert Hatton.

Annie falls head-over-heels in love with Frank and he returns the affection until her fantastic feats with a gun become too much for his male ego and he leaves to join a rival show.

The play was packed full of heart-warming action, drama, comedy, and hit music.

Nelson Carpenter directed.

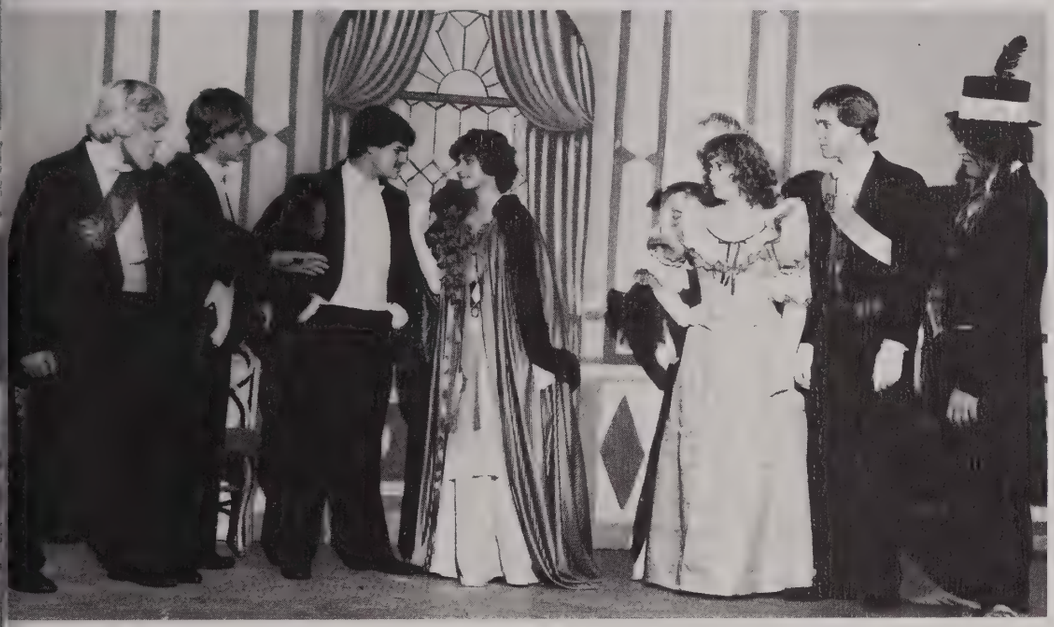

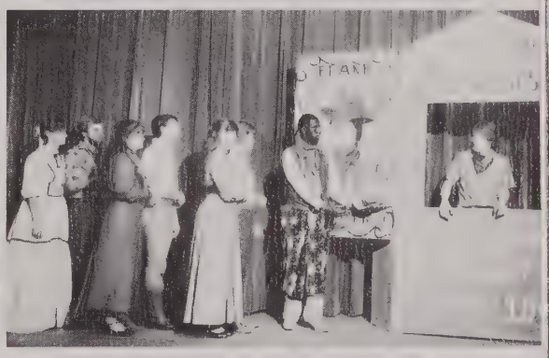

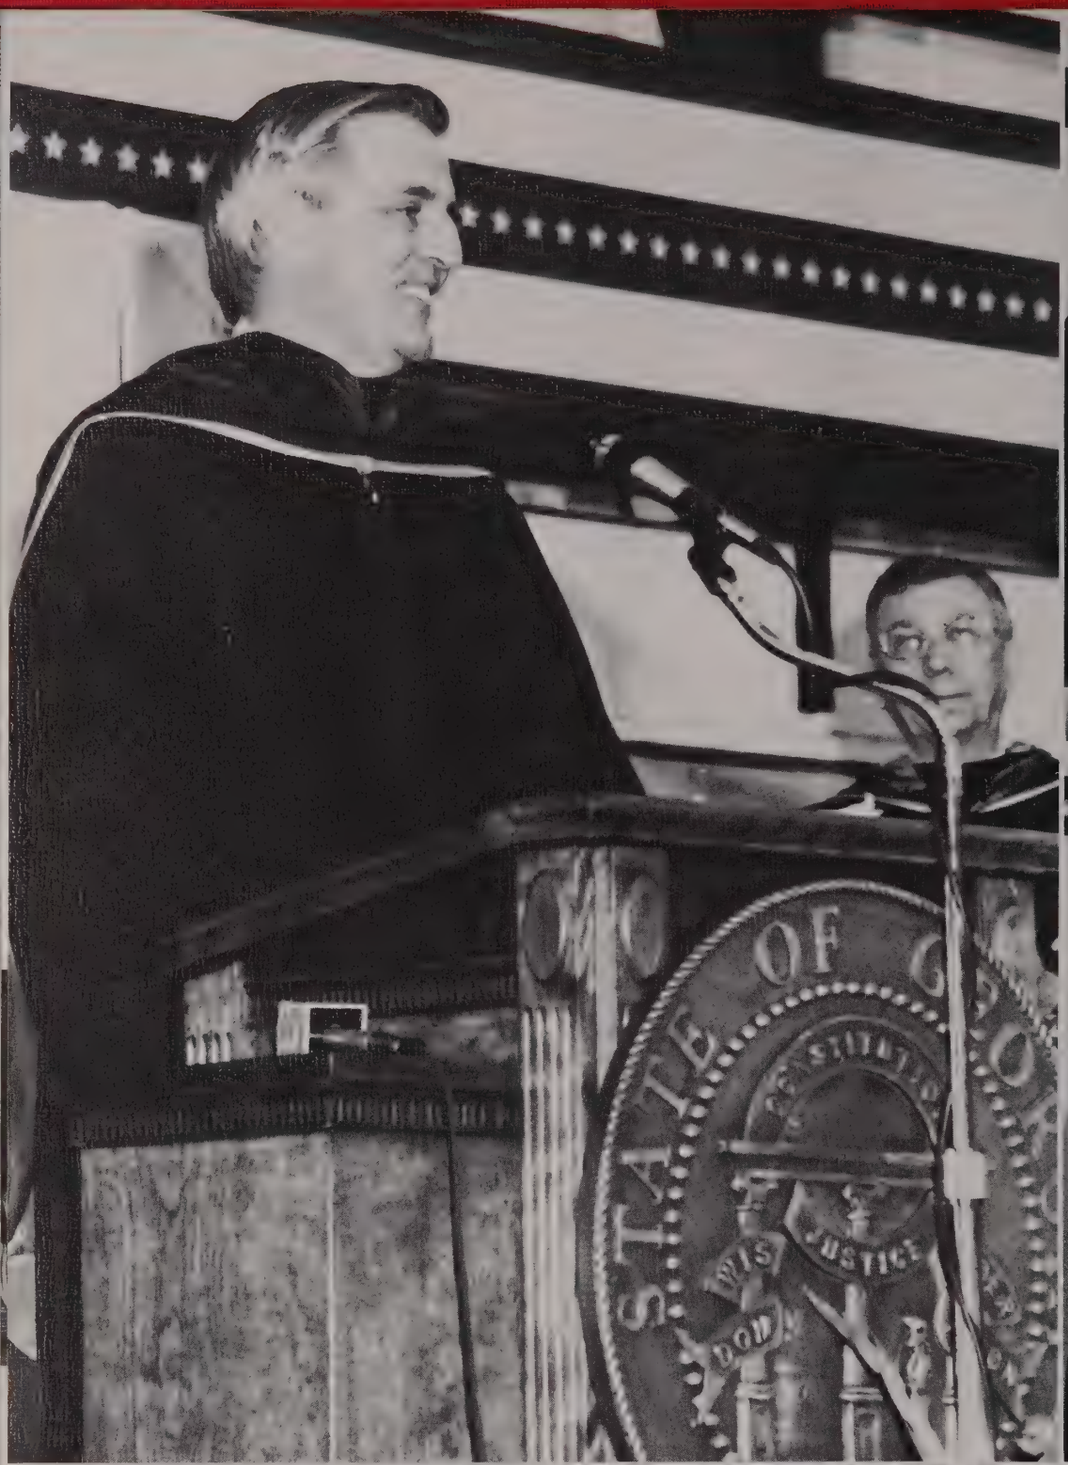

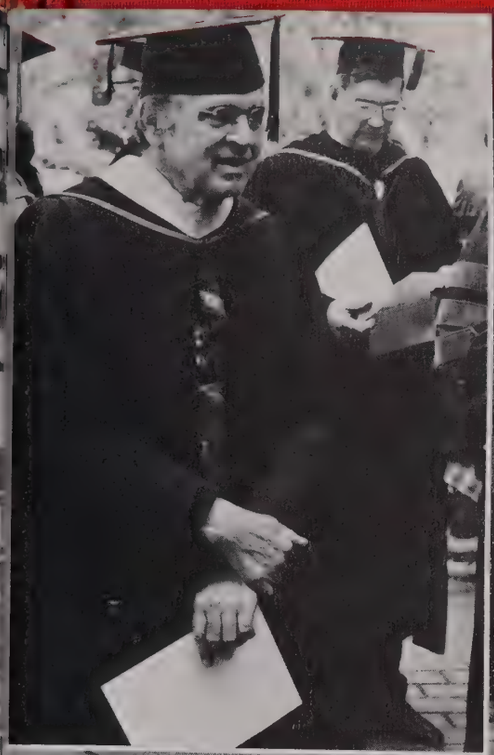

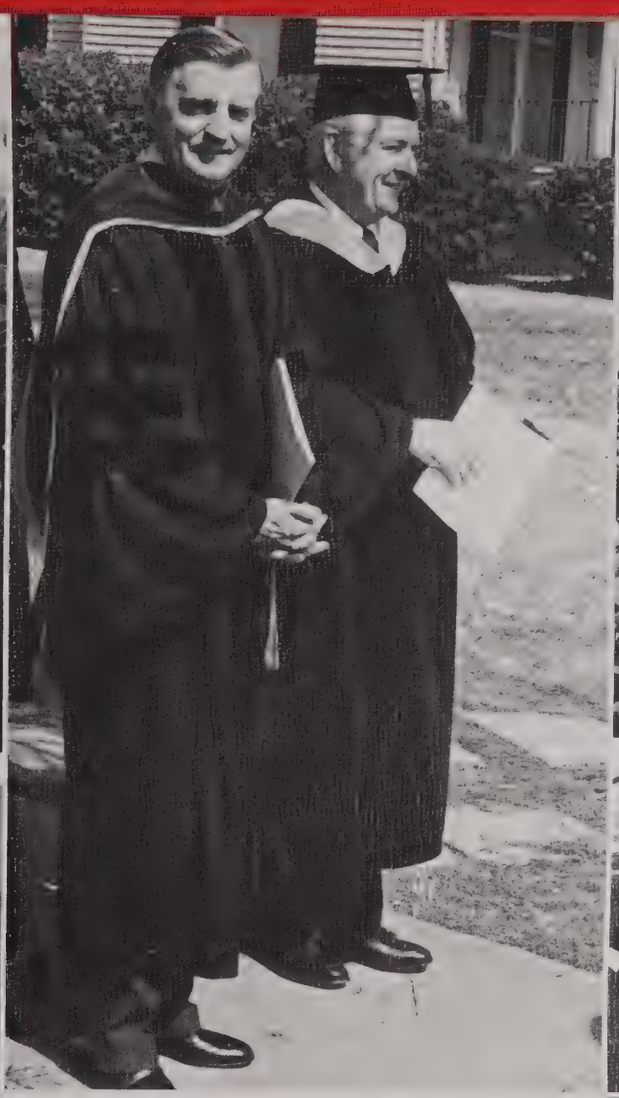

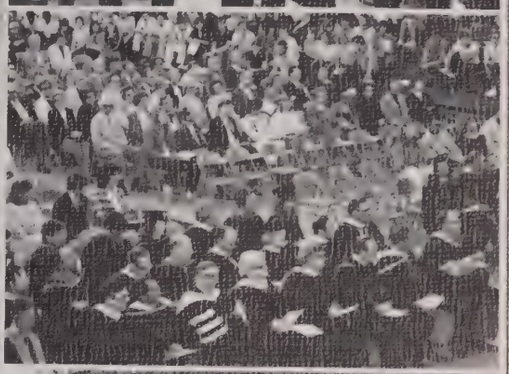

Mondale Speaks at MGC

Former Vice President Walter F. Mondale addressed a special Semiquincentary convocation at MGC on March 8. During the convocation, he told the MGC student body that the future of America lies with the educated youth. He stressed education in the fields of math and science.

Regent Emeritus Sam A. Way of Hawkinsville and Georgia Secretary of State Max Cleland also attended the convocation.

1982 Hilltopper Named Best Southern JUCO Yearbook

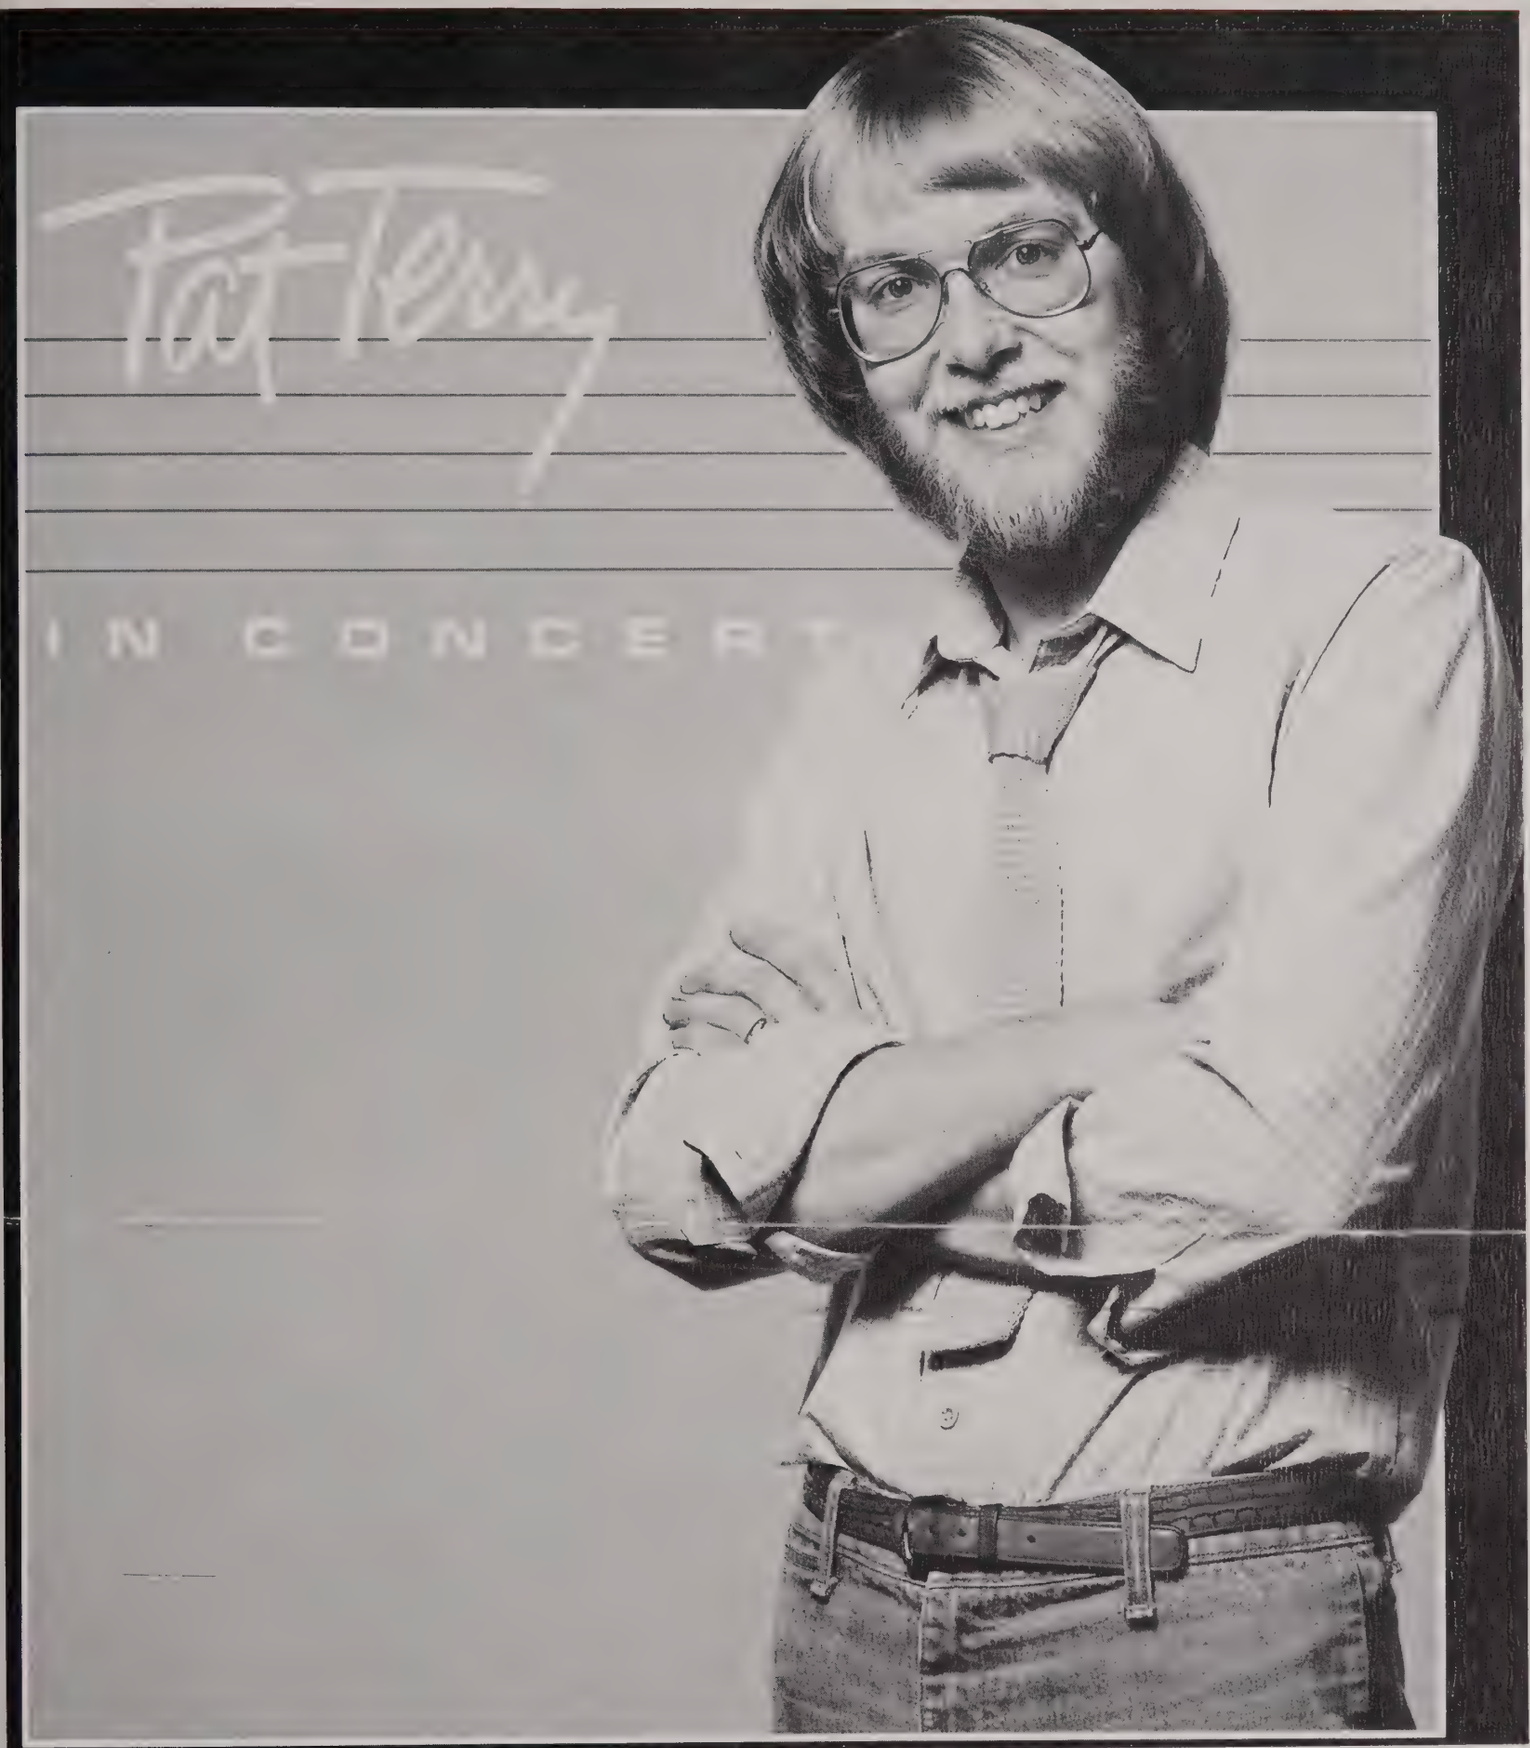

Michael Stokes, Bruce Avery - Editor, and Donice Walker display Southern Press Association top honor.

The 1982 Hilltopper was named best JUCO yearbook in the Southeast at the annual Southern Press Institute held in Savannah in March.

The judges recognized the yearbook as a fine representation of Middle Georgia College and a publication to be proud of.

The Press Institute gives recognition to the most outstanding publications in five southern states, according to school class.

Bruce Avery served as editor of the publication. Donice Walker and Donna Lawhorn were assistant editors. Ken Joyner and George Hinton served as advisors.

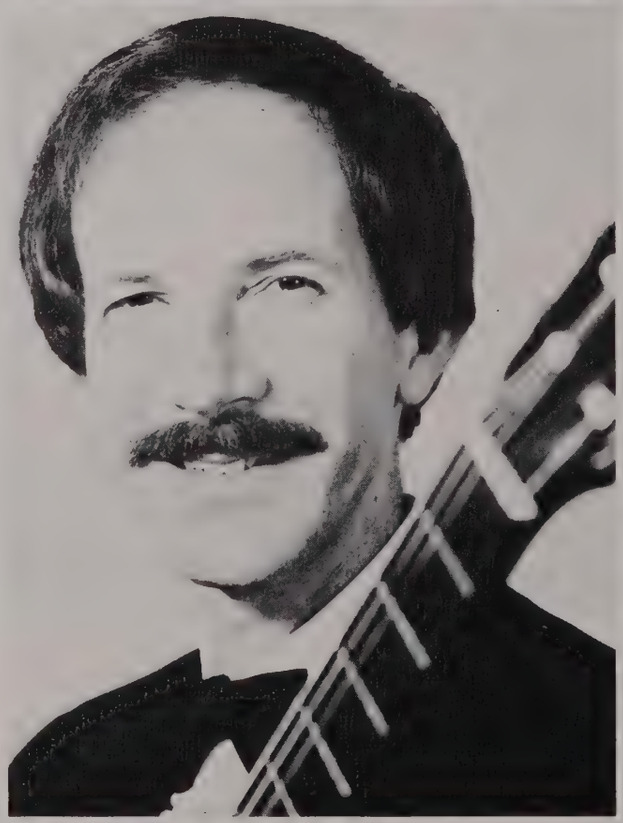

Religious Emphasis Week

Religious organizations at MGC observed Religious Emphasis Week on campus February 28 - March 4.

Each religious organization on campus sponsored activities including a medley of music and drama entitled The Journey sponsored by the BSU; Father Bob Cushing, sponsored by the Newman Club; and Christian recording artist Pat Terry in concert.

Honors Day

Honors Day at Middle Georgia College is set aside to recognize those students who have excelled in academics and extra-curricular activities while at MGC.

The 1983 ceremonies were marked by the presentation of the highest freshman, sophomore, and continuing education student honors. Also presented were awards for continuous Dean's List and for outstanding graduates in each academic division.

Max Cleland, Georgia's Secretary of State, was Honors Day guest speaker. He told the honorees, "The key to achieving success is to be prepared, have faith in our abilities, and profit from our downfalls."

The students of Middle Georgia College elected their Student Government Association officers for 1983-84 on Tuesday, May 17.

Lee Jones of Swainsboro was elected to serve as SGA President for 1983-84. His other three officers — all women — are all from Cochran. Mary Ellen Lawson received the Vice Presidential vote. Connie Scott was selected SGA Secretary. And Tracee Mullis was voted Treasurer.

Senators for the year are elected during Fall quarter.

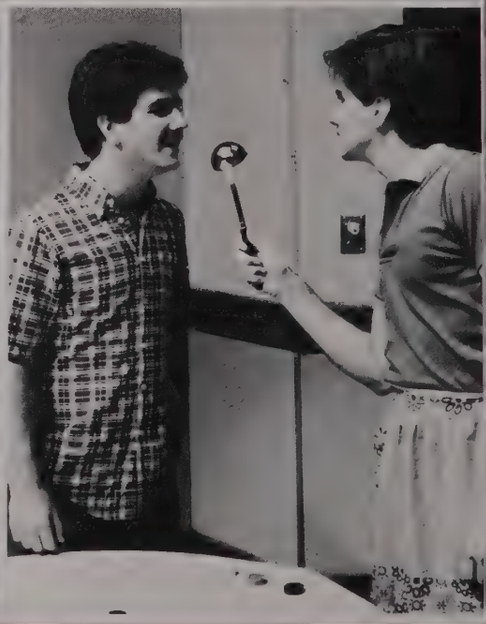

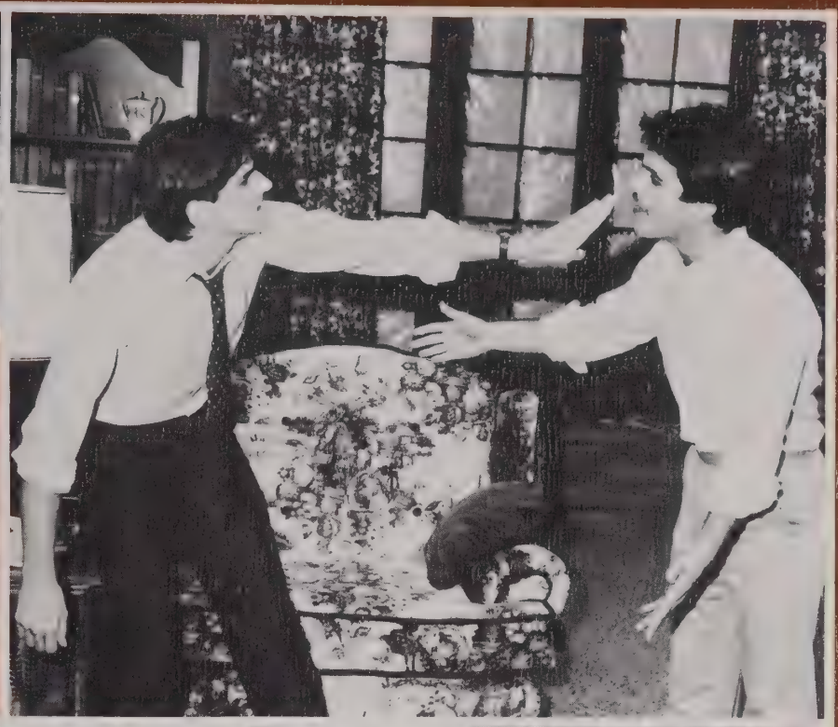

The Odd Couple

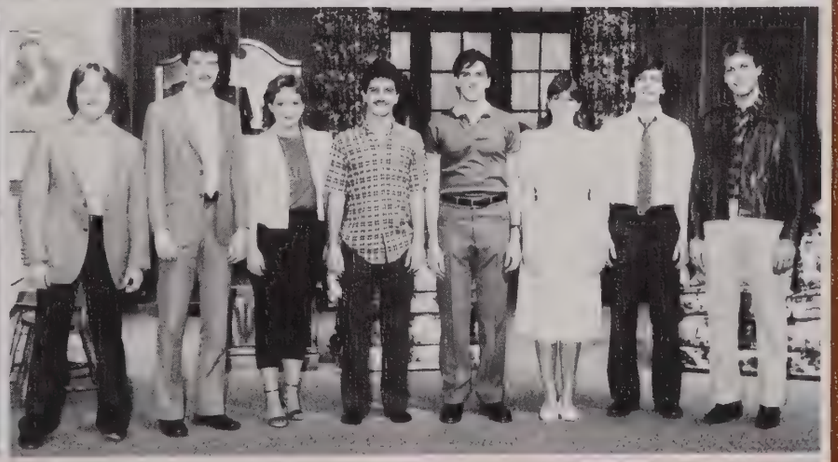

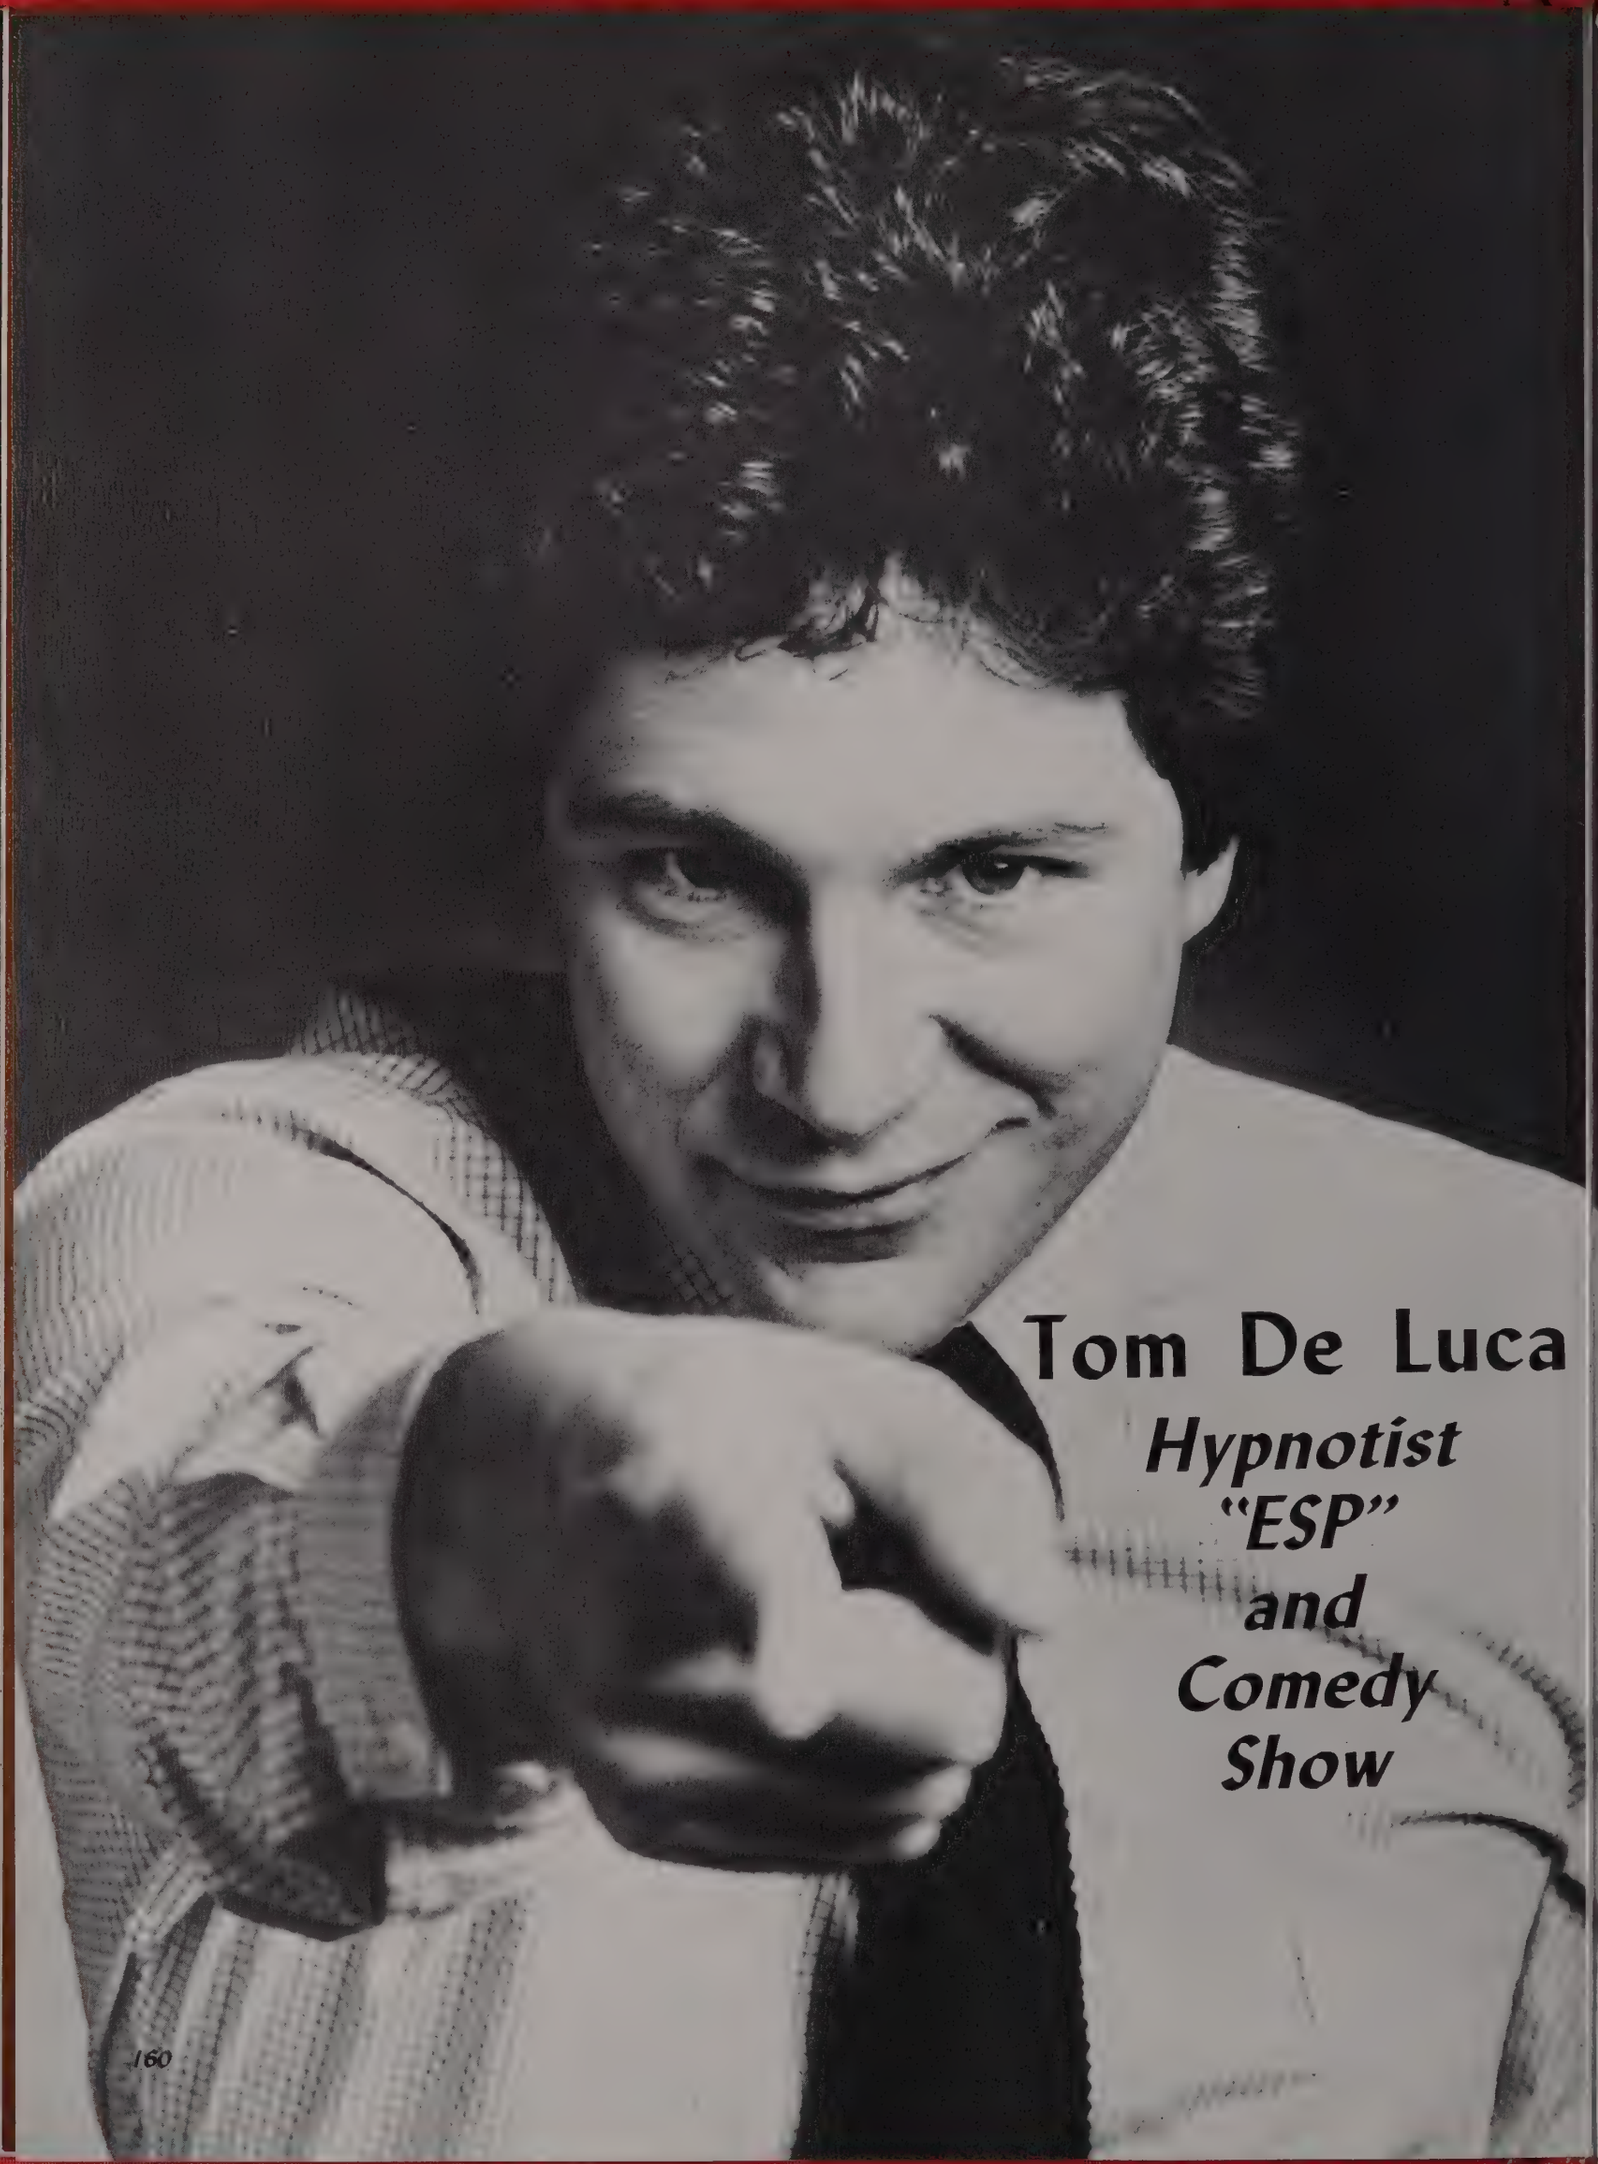

Neil Simon's The Odd Couple was the Middle Georgia College spring comedy production. Starring Mark Walker as Felix and John Riddle as Oscar, the play revolves around two best friends who have moved in with each other after their marriages failed. The opposites of the characters proved to be the attractiveness of the production.

Redcoat Band

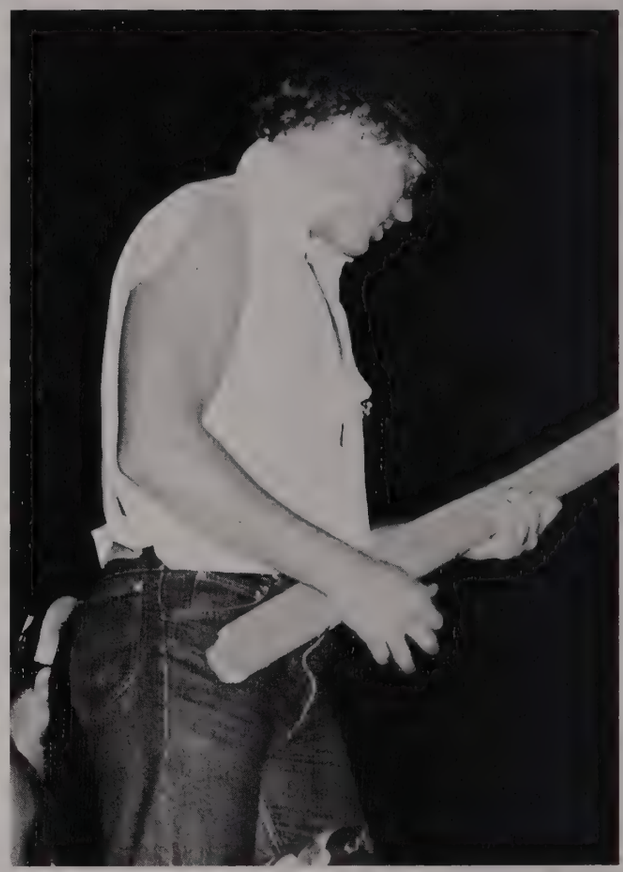

Air Band

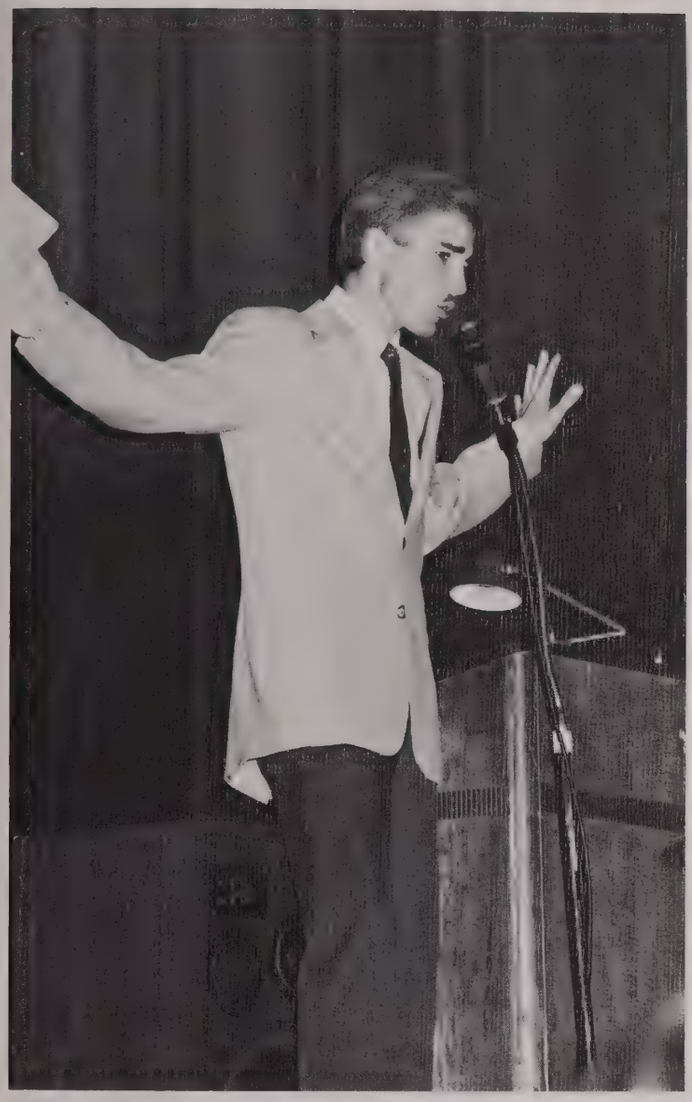

Spring Fling '83 • Spring Fling '83 •

The annual Spring Fling celebration began on Monday evening with MGC's famous Air Band contest. As usual, the event was well worth the cost of admission - free - and provided a good diversion if you had nothing else to do!

Technical problems plagued the event, but that, too, became almost comical before the event was complete.

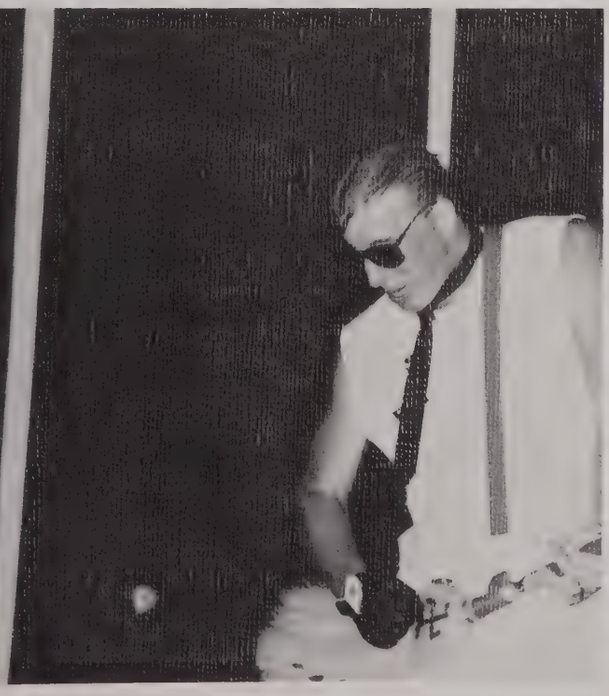

MGC's resident Emcee, Clark Senn, did his usual superb job hosting such events. His attempt to keep the audience during the technical problems became the hit of the show. Local talent in Jack Gary and Tommy Taylor also provided comical relief during the technical problems.

Redrum took top honors followed by Intensity, The MGC Beer Wagon, and The Plugs.

Toga! Toga! Toga!

Tuesday of Spring Fling week brought the movie Animal House to the Middle Georgia College campus.

Following the movie, the SGA and SAC sponsored a Toga! Party in the student center.

Animal House has become as much a part of MGC tradition as any other event during the year.

Field Day

Wednesday of Spring Fling week was a field day. Activities included a picnic, sack races, egg tosses, and entertainment during the outdoor events.

Thursday ended the week with the annual graduation dance.

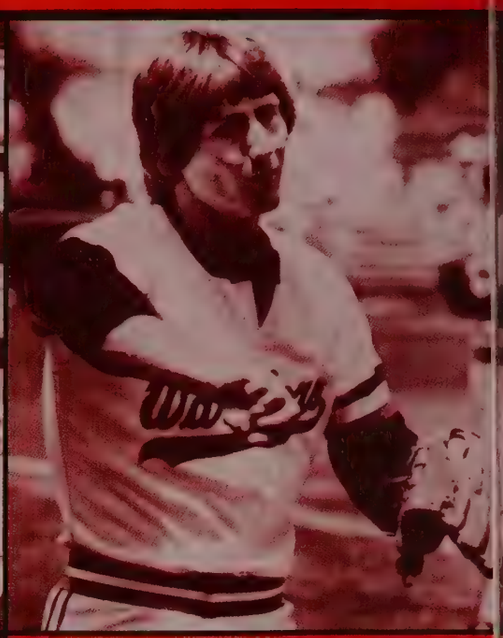

'83 Warriors Finish Second in NJCAA

It just was not meant to be. The Middle Geor College Warriors, national baseball champs for 19 1980, and 1982, could not repeat that feat at the 19 event. They did, though, bring home the second pla trophy. And that's not bad — second place out of a 500 teams!

After easy work of the Georgia finals, the Warriors had to battle back in the 51st tourname

At the grand junction, Colorado, tournament, the Warriors were never ranked in the top position. They made easy work of Brookdale, New Jersey, Allen County, Kansas, and had the greatest comeback in NJCAA tournament history against Pima, Arizona.

But McLennan of Texas, the team MGC sent home in 1982 with the third place trophy, was MGC's match. The Highlanders sent MGC to the loser's bracket on Tuesday. The Warriors retired Pima to the right to continue only to be stopped again by McLennan in the title game.

The Warriors finished the season 41-10 with a second-place national finish.

Retirees

Mrs. Elouise Cave Weber, Mrs. Bertie Mae Garrett, and Mrs. Hazel Dukes.

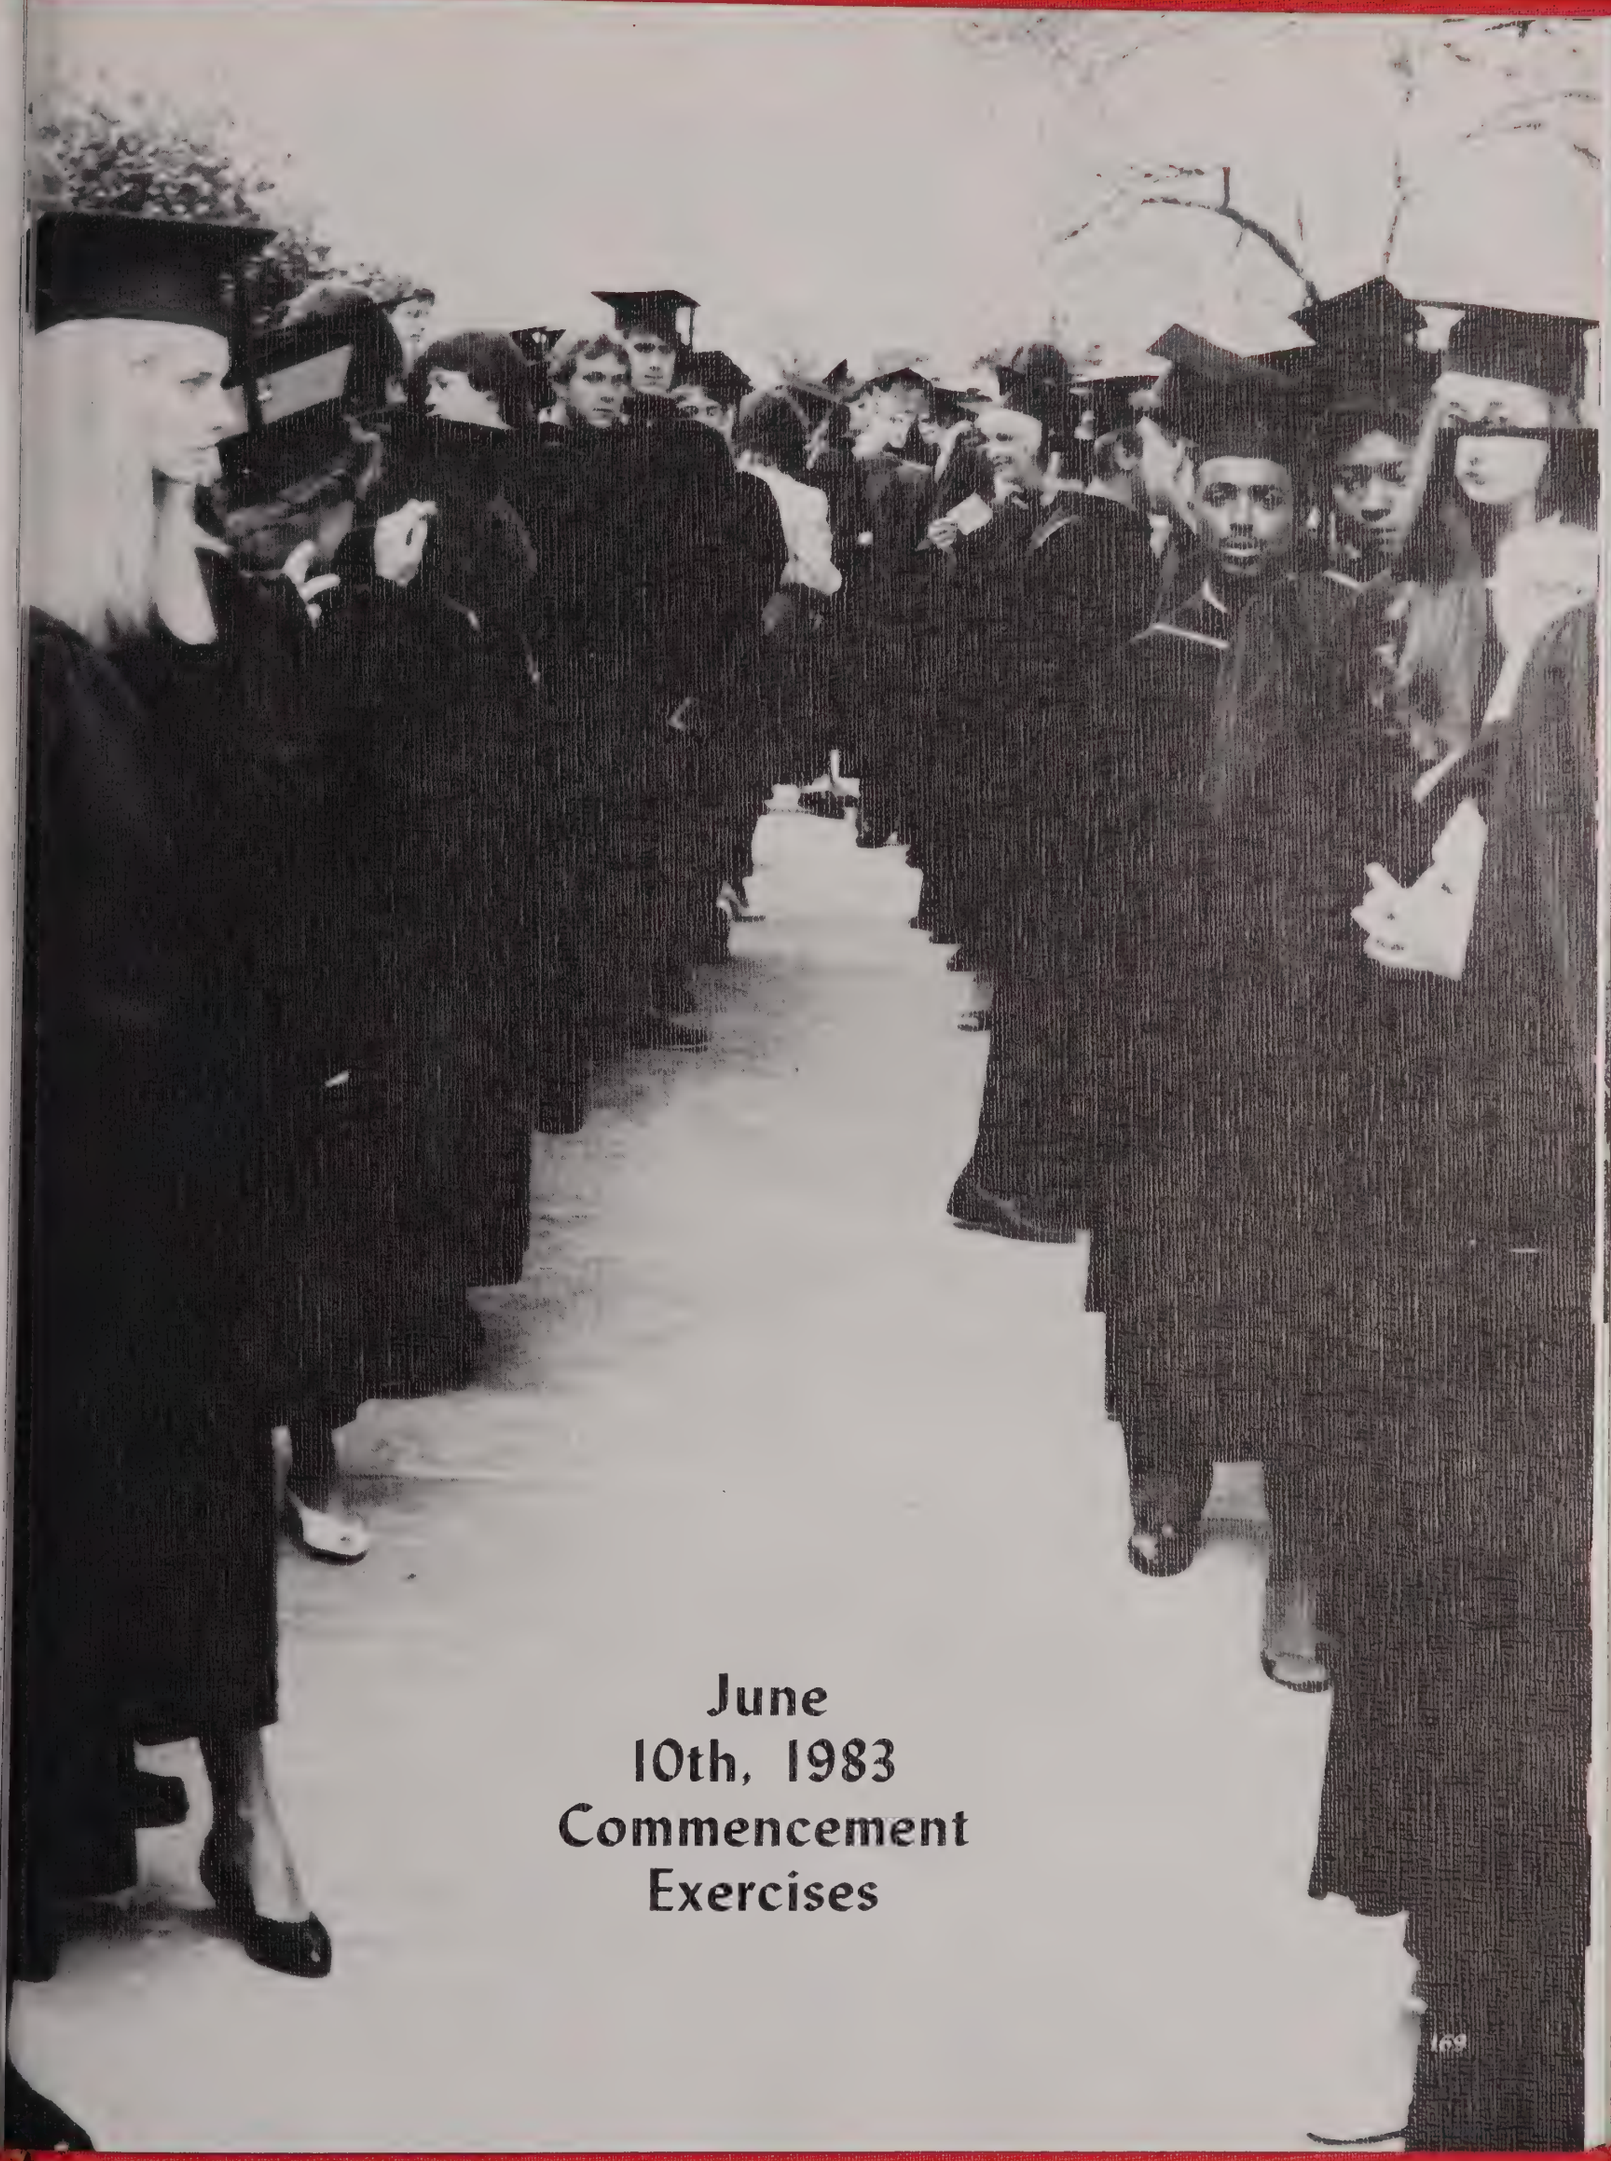

Five Middle Georgia College faculty and staff members retired during the 1982-83 year.

Nat Frazer, professor of music, retired at the beginning of fall quarter. Mitchell French, assistant professor of mathematics, retired during spring quarter. Mrs. Elouise Cave Weber, assistant professor of business administration, Mrs. Bertie Mae Garrett, associate professor of business education, and Mrs. Hazel Dukes, residence hall director, retired at the end of the year.

Both Frazer and Mrs. Garrett had 15 years of service at MGC. French retired after 16 years. Mrs. Weber had 17 years of service. And Mrs. Dukes retired after seven years.

Commencement

Commencement for the 225 Middle Georgia College graduates for 1983 was a day long looked forward to. Commencement marked the end of two years at MGC and the beginning of the rest of their lives.

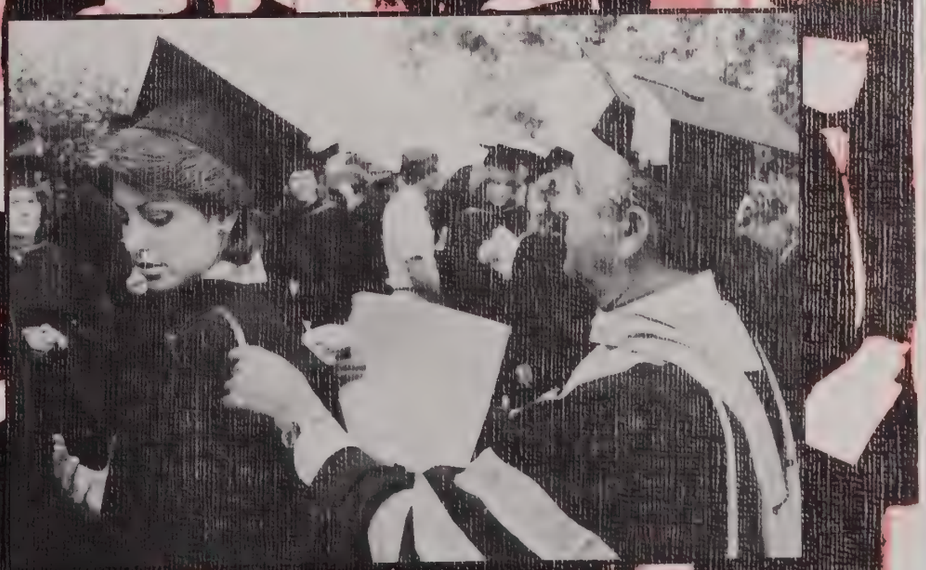

Dr. Webb Garrison, noted author and writer for the Atlanta Journal and Constitution, addressed the gathering. His topic was a semiquincentenary address focusing on James Edward Oglethorpe, founder of the colony of Georgia.

Memorial

Robert Jeff Tuberville
Deceased March 6, 1983

Memories of 1983

Sweet memories, of lollipops and red bouquets and twilights trimmed in purple haze, and laughing eyes and simple ways, quiet nights and gentle days with you . . .
